INTERESTING FROM CHINA.

The Forthcoming Demonstration against Pekin—Fortification of Canton by the Allies—Arrival of Commodore Tatnall—The United States Squadron—Movement of Commissioner Reed to Suppress the Coolie Trade—Return of Consul Keenan to the United States—Horrible Outrage.

From Our Own Correspondent.

United States Steamship San Jacinto, Hong Kong, China, Jan. 28, 1858.

Affairs at Canton remain in statu quo, nothing of interest having transpired since the departure of the last mail. The City still stands as of yore, is quietly occupied by the Allies, and ruled by its Tartar Governor. The complete success of the British arms in the Province of Kwangtung, together with the little resistance experienced from the Chinese, coupled with their servile submission to the authority of their conquerors, will lead to the withdrawal of the larger portion of the allied forces from the City and from this part of China. The seat of war—if it is continued at all—will doubtless be removed to the northern portion of the empire. Next month, all of the force now at Canton—except about one thousand British and four hundred French troops, with some six vessels of war—will be withdrawn and will proceed early in the coming Spring to the northward. All the available force at the disposal of Lord Elgin will rendezvous at the Gulf of Pechele, preparatory to a demonstration before Pekin.

With a force of four hundred men, entrenched as strongly as they will be, the allied commanders are confident that they can hold possession of Canton, and will, in case of emergency, be able to resist, successfully, ten times that number of Chinese. Every strong position within, and in the immediate vicinity of the city, is being strengthened and fortified with an eye to the permanent occupation of the city. With the examples of Delhi, Lucknow and Cawnpore before their eyes, it is not at all likely that the British will be caught napping at Canton.

As an evidence of the security that is felt in the might of the conquerors, we see that the Chinese merchants—Howqua among the number—have just put forth a circular stating therein their intention of returning to the city after their New Years and engaging in trade as of old. The blockade now in operation will then be removed, and every encouragement given to trade. Governor Yeh is still held in durance vile on board H. M. steamer Inflexible, now lying at the Bogue. Pehqwi, the newly appointed Governor, still reigns in his stead, and in the judgment of his Governors, rules in the most exemplary manner, and does just as he is told to do by his Executives.

Commodore Josiah Tatnall arrived here on the 15th, in the Pacific and Oriental steamer Ottowa, too late, however, for me to communicate the news of his arrival by the last mail. Owing to the delay in his arrival of a few hours, Commodore Armstrong was unable to leave for the United States as I stated he would do in my letter of the 15th. He leaves to-morrow in the steamer Ottawa, accompanied by Fleet-Surgeon Wood, his Secretary.

On no station is there a call for greater ability and energy than on this. Events of the past two years have fully shown this to be the case, and those events I think have also proved that those qualities were wanting. Let the facts of the case prove it. The flag-ship of the United States East India squadron has visited since her arrival on the station but two of the five "free-ports," Hong Kong and Shanghae, and has within the past year done only about ten days' cruising. The only steamer on the station, she has laid idle and most in port, and our interests allowed to suffer. There has been, and is now, an urgent call for our services in the several ports of China, at Japan and at Manilla, which call has not been obeyed. Doubtless the complaint of Consul Harris at being left alone in his glory for a year—not a national vessel having been near him for about that time—has opened the eyes of the Department ere this, and has verified all that I have said. But enough of this: I believe that henceforth this ship will not be a fixture.

The whole United States squadron is now congregated in this harbor. Our Commissioner, Mr. Reed, is here in the Minnesota, and quietly abiding his time. He is almost the observed of all observers, as being the representative in the eyes of the English of American policy in China. His every movement is watched with lynx-eyed curiosity by foreigners here, but I am most happy to say that, so far, he has shown himself a man of sense and discretion by keeping his own counsel. Englishmen are totally unable to see through the clouds of American diplomacy. Mr. Reed has taken a step in the right direction by making a move toward putting a stop to American vessels engaging in the nefarious coolie trade. He has notified an American vessel now loading at Macao with coolies, of his intention to move the United States Government to put in force the act of Congress of 1818, relating to this matter. That he will meet with the most virulent opposition from the delectable gentry who are engaged in this traffic is quite certain. We shall see if in this case right is might.

I omitted to tell you in the first part of this letter that among the spoils secured at Canton, was the original copy of the ratified Cushing treaty between the United States and China. It was sent down to Mr. Reed, who now has possession of it.

Consul Keenan returns to the States, starting by this mail steamer. General Keenan carries with him the best wishes of the Hong Kong community, who one and all wish for his speedy return. The sentiment regarding him here is, that the right man is in the right place for once.

The denizens of Hong Kong were furnished with another exhibition of Chinese ferocity on Tuesday last. A bright-eyed boy, a mere child, was wantonly murdered by the Coolies employed at a jeweler's establishment where the child was stopping. After stabbing him to the heart they cut his throat from ear to ear, and then cooly proceeded to rob the establishment of between $6,000 and $7,000 worth of jewelry This is but another chapter in the book of Hong Kong horrors.

Outrages upon Americans in China.

Boston, Saturday, April 10, 1858.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

I write to thank you for the interest you manifest in our relations with China, particularly, at this moment, for the well-conceived article in your issue of yesterday. It is to your spirited editorials, I presume, we owe the Senate call for the instructions to Mr. Commissioner Reed; and I have hopes now that a call will soon be made for the whole correspondence of our civil and naval representation in China with each other, and with the Chinese authorities, as well as with the State and Navy Departments, and the instructions returned by the latter. I think it will show badly for the present and last Administration, and may induce more vigorous and reputable action now.

I ought to state that I have no interest whatever in claims against China, but after a close connection with the trade for more than twenty years, I desire to see those who are to follow me better placed than I have been myself.

One of the most glaring outrages committed on the persons and property of American citizens, through the connivance of Chinese officials, happened in the case of the Caldera, wrecked and robbed at Kulan in October, 1854. The particulars may not be known to you. The Caldera was a Peruvian ship, commanded by Mr. Rooney, a naturalized American, and sailed from Hong Kong for California in October, 1854, with cargo shipped for American account and under American insurance; China having accorded to Peru, not a treaty exactly, but an agreement—a written compact—that she should enjoy the privileges accorded to the three Treaty Powers, England, France, and the United States.

The Caldera sailed at the commencement of a typhoon, and getting crippled, sought refuge, with an exhausted crew, in the harbor of Kulan. There she was attacked by three separate and successive parties from the shore, who at length drove the slightly armed crew from the vessel, and then robbed and burned her. Being Vice-Consul at the time, as soon as I got the captain's protest, I addressed the Governor of Canton (Governor-General of Kwanghing and Kwangtse,) with a statement of facts, and an offer to provide a steamer and pilot to convey to the spot any force he might wish to send. Of course I got only an evasive answer, that he would "diligently inquire of the officers of that department." Subsequently I advised him that the losses reported to me amounted to about $100,000, and requested that a Chinese officer might be deputed to examine the claim with me, believing that from the laxity of the Kulan Mandarins, (I did not want, at that stage, to say complicity,) the loss became a claim on the Government of China which my Government would enforce. Repulsed again, I could do no more than advise him that I should refer the matter home to the United States, and a month later I had the satisfaction to learn from officers of the Encounter and Queen, that part of the Caldera's cargo was then lying stored in Kulan, proving the correctness of my own arguments with the Governor.

When Doctor Parker came out as Commissioner, he brought instructions from Mr. Secretary Marcy to present this claim; but without authority to call on the Navy to enforce its collection, he fared no better than myself. The Governor refused to see him, and wrote what he pleased under the shelter of city walls and palaces.

Had this claim been an English one, the city of Canton would have been opened long ago.

Yours, &c., AMERICUS.

A Long Cabinet Session—Something Important Coming—The Lecompton Conference Committee—The Willett's Point Investigation—River and Harbor Appropriations—Colonel Benton's Obsequies, &c.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

Washington, Monday, April 12.

The Cabinet had a close session to-day, from 9 until 1 o'clock, but I cannot learn on what subject. It is evident from various indications that something important is on the tapis, and rumor is busy in determining whether it is a Spanish war message, the affairs of Mexico, a new Kansas bill, our treaty relations with England, or Utah.

It is now generally believed that a Conference Committee will be carried in the House, and that in Committee the Senate and House bills will be cut up and dove-tailed so as to make something acceptable to the Douglas Democrats, and thus save the Administration from the appearance of defeat.

The Willett's Point Committee examined General Totten to-day, and intend summoning some persons in New-York, who will be rather taken by surprise.

Circumstances have transpired implicating the Custom-House squad in another fraud on the Government in the sale of land at New-Bedford, and the Committee will probably ask for additional powers to investigate that also.

The Committee on Commerce have a special meeting to-morrow, to determine on a report of River and Harbor appropriations—which will only amount to about a million and a half. Washburne wants to report in favor of four or five millions.

It is believed that Com. Lavalette will be appointed to the command of the Mediterranean Squadron.

[FROM THE REPORTER FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, Monday, April 12.

The funeral service of Mr. Benton was attended, among others, by the President, members of the Cabinet, Foreign Ministers, and members of Congress. The corpse was conveyed to the cars for transmission to Missouri.

Colonel Benton's will was opened on Saturday. The document was drawn up last September, just previous to the surgical operation which threatened his life. No instructions were found with regard to his funeral. His residence at Washington is bequeathed to Mrs. Jones, and Wm. Carey Jones is to have the library, as literary legatee. The residue of the estate is distributed among the surviving children. The executors are Messrs. Wm. Carey Jones, John C. Fremont, Richard T. Jacob, Montgomery P. Blair and Philip Lee.

Senator Bigler to-day presented to the President a tender from the Adjutant-General of Pennsylvania of a Regiment of Volunteers.

The Cabinet held a long session to-day with reference to the affairs of Utah. It is said the President contemplates sending a message to Congress on the subject.

XXXVth CONGRESS------First Session.

SENATE.... Washington, Monday, April 12.

A message was received from the House announcing its adherence to its vote on the Kansas bill; also, that it had passed the Deficiency Appropriation bill.

Mr. Green, of Missouri, gave notice that he would move to take up the Kansas bill to-morrow, at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Hale, of New-Hampshire, presented the petition of the inmates of the Military Asylum, asking for a subsistence, instead of continuing within the Asylum, in which they complain of abuses. Referred to a Special Committee, with power to report by bill, and to send for persons and papers.

The Senate then adjourned to attend Colonel Benton's funeral.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington, Monday, April 12.

On motion of Mr. Clark, of Missouri, the House, immediately after the reading of the Journal, adjourned, in order to afford members an opportunity to attend the funeral ceremonies of Mr. Benton this afternoon.

Nearly all the members who, after the House adjourned, lingered in the hall conversing either in groups or in their seats, were startled by a fight between Mr. Craige, of North Carolina, and Mr. Helper, author of a book entitled The Impending Crisis, and formerly of the same State. They had just before been angrily engaged in conversation. Crowds of members and others rushed in and separated the combatants while they were engaged in dealing heavy blows. Mr. Helper was temporarily taken in charge by the Sergeant-at-Arms. A number of ladies who were on the floor, and witnesses of the proceedings, were much frightened. A pistol and knife were found on Mr. Helper, who made no attempt to use them. An investigation was held this afternoon, and Senator Hale and Montgomery Blair, Esq., appeared as his counsel. The Justice held him in bonds to keep the peace.

Appointment of Peace Commissioners to Utah Probable—Their Duties—Responsibility of the Democratic Party for the Condition of Utah—Important Movements for the Dismemberment of Mexico.

Washington, Saturday, April 10.

It is not yet determined to dispatch Civil Commissioners to Utah along with the Commander-in-Chief of the Army. The subject has been discussed in the military committee of the Senate for more than two months. The recommendation was made by Col. Davis, the chairman of the committee, in his elaborate speech, favoring an increase of the army early in February. Subsequently the expedient was more fully considered in the committee, and two of its members were appointed to consult with the President concerning it. This sub-committee will probably report next week. It is thought best to provide for the office by law, and that may be done by a section in the Army Appropriation bill. It is difficult to perceive by what authority the President could appoint Commissioners either for peace or war, save in compliance with law.

The embarrassments arising from the anomalous condition of Utah, are the natural results of the incautious and careless policy pursued in organizing and governing the Territory during the past seven years. When the territorial act passed in 1850, it was perfectly well known that Salt Lake was settled by Mormons alone; that it had become an Alsatia for the crazy fanatics of Europe and the United States, and that the Government was an ecclesiastical despotism, absolutely certain to come into collision with that of the United States, as soon as it became sufficiently powerful. In the face of all these patent facts Mr. Fillmore, with the advice of Mr. Douglas and all the leading members of the Democratic Party, appointed Brigham Young, the Mormon high-priest, Governor. General Pierce made a feeble attempt to supersede him by the appointment of a military officer, Colonel Steptoe, who was dispatched to the province with a battery of artillery and a squadron of dragoons. He remained at Salt Lake long enough to propose and forward a memorial for the retention of the Mormon chief in office, and then returned to the United States with his troops. General Pierce respected the recommendation, and, in 1855, reappointed Young to the two important and valuable offices of Governor and Superintendent of Indian affairs. He remained in the exercise of regal power within the limits of his dominions three years. In the Summer of 1857, President Buchanan appointed Col. Cumming, of Georgia, to succeed Young, and in the Fall dispatched the new Governor, with an imposing military escort, just in time to meet the snow-storms in the passes of the Rocky Mountains. Had the Winter been of the usual severity, the Governor and army would have been buried beyond the reach of excavation. But there is a probability that they have survived the unparalleled mildness of the season, and are ready to meet Brigham in his halls.

There seems little room for doubt that the Saints are in rank rebellion, yet we have no such official and authentic information as justifies Congress in proceeding against them as insurgents, and the President has no such power. It is, therefore, fitting and necessary that peace Commissioners should go with the army. The practice of declaring any community of the United States in rebellion upon the sole authority of the Executive is a most dangerous and unconstitutional one.

The machinations proceeding now relative to Mexico, are of the highest importance, and are likely to lead to events which will influence the policy of the country for a long period to come.

It is reported that General Comonfort is in New-Orleans in full communication with Walker and other leading men of the fillibuster party, and with their aid is organizing an expedition for the invasion of Mexico. Colonel Robles, the Minister, has called attention to these proceedings, and invoked the aid of the Government in suppressing them. He is coldly referred by the President to the neutrality laws, and is informed that they will be sufficient to enforce the obligations of this country. He remembers that the ministers from the Central American States were answered in the same manner the very week before Walker sailed upon his last expedition. Candid and unprejudiced men are of opinion that the President and Cabinet look upon Mexico as rather dead than sick, and it is for them to appropriate the estate of the decedent intestate. With this view, it only remains to take measures for the establishment of a protectorate.

The operations of Comonfort and the fillibusters of the southwest, refer especially to the northeastern States of Mexico, those that have been for three years in a condition of virtual independence of the central power, under Vidaurri.

Other and more important movements are meditated against Sonora, which it is intended to annex by the speediest possible process. Unfortunately, the work is already half done. It is represented that Gaudara, the Chief opposed to the Government of Zuloaga, or to any Government of which he is not himself the head, has complete possession of the State, and is ready, upon the proper assurances of outside support, to declare it independent. The Fillibusters promise this support, and they are said to be in the market for a loan. It is rumored that Mr. Slidell has opened negotiations with Mr. Belmont for the needful financial supplies. The proposed loan is said by some to be for one million of dollars, by others for three millions, to be secured upon the faith of the independent State of Sonora, Gen. Gaudara President. When the independence of the new State shall be demonstrated to the Central Government of Mexico, its assent to the annexation of Sonora to the United States is to be purchased for double the amount of the loan, and the excess to go to the operators in this transaction, as their just and moderate profits.

FASHION AT WASHINGTON.

The Fancy Ball at Mrs. Senator Gwin's, Washington City—Who were There—What they Wore, and How they Enjoyed Themselves—With Arabella's Opinions.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

Washington, Friday, April 9, 1858.

Never, since the masquerade so fatal to Gustavus of Sweden, has there been an entertainment en costume about which so much has been said, and will be said, as that which was given last night (and prolonged late into this morning) by Mrs. Senator Gwin, of California. For the past month it has been the staple topic of metropolitan gossip, and "what to wear" has been discussed even more than the Lecompton Constitution. The libraries of Congress and of the Smithsonian Institution have been ransacked for plates of costumes, the tailors and mantua-makers have been kept busily engaged, gold lace has commanded exorbitant prices, the expressmen have had innumerable commissions to execute, the wardrobe of the theatre has been stripped, and two New-York "costumers" have brought on collections of fabulous attire, which they obtained fabulous prices for the loan of. Everybody talked about the ball, and when it was whispered about that some economical would-be fashionables were predicting that it would be a failure, the excitement was increased. Those who know the Gwins, however, knew that the word "fail" is not in their family dictionary, and their confident predictions have been gloriously fulfilled. The ball has been a success—the joys of realization have eclipsed the delights of anticipation—and those who were fortunate enough to be present will long treasure in their hearts the recollection of this matchless festival.

PREPARATIONS.

The reader's humble servant, by the kindness of Mr. Etynge, of the theatre, arrayed himself as Paul Pry, with a faultless green umbrella, and a fresh note-book. Arabella, who is slightly poetical, chose to appear as the Recording Angel, in a costume fashioned after Mead's statue, very classical, and not expensive. She had to have her hair dressed early in the morning, as the metropolis cannot boast of but two coiffeurs, but was more fortunate than a lady over in Georgetown, who applied at so late an hour that she could only obtain one of these knights of the curling-tongs the night before; consequently, she was forced to sleep in a chair.

THE DRESSING-ROOMS.

We went early to Mrs. Gwin's house, which is far at the west end, and is a new and spacious brick edifice, with rooms on either side of the hall, which extends through the centre. Arabella went up into the ladies' dressing-room in the third story, while I descended into the basement, where there was every convenience for the safe keeping of outer garments, with attentive servants. So it was up-stairs, Arabella afterwards informed me, with a coutourière on duty with needles and silk, to repair damages to toilettes.

THE PUNCH-ROOM.

The office of Senator Gwin, also in the basement, was converted into a punch-room, and two gigantic bowls were kept supplied with most delectable beverages, one spirituous, the other vinous, in composition. Later in the night, this room was the head-quarters of a dozen Senators, who cordially fraternized, and appeared to be ignorant that such a place as Kansas existed. Could some of those who only read (and who religiously believe in) the radical newspapers of the North, or the incendiary journals of the South, but have seen their Senatorial idols indulging in the most familiar and friendly conversation, they would have thought the millennium had really arrived. Guelphs and Ghibelines—radicals and fire-eaters—fraternized cosily, and seemed to forget that they had recently been shivering lances on each other's reputations in the Senatorial arena.

THE RECEPTION SALOON.

This was at the left of the hall, and at the door stood an usher, who announced each guest, by the name of the character which they had assumed. The worthy fellow beggled sadly at some of the historical names, but enabled the hostess to know something about her guests, to whom she extended a cordial welcome. Arabella at once began to see "what was worn!"

Mrs. Gwin did look magnificently. She is a lady rather above the usual size, and was elaborately attired as a Marchioness of the Court of Versailles. Her dress was of heavy white moire antique silk, richly flounced and trimmed with exquisite lace, with a train of cherry-colored satin, trimmed with ruches of white satin, and she wore her hair powdered à la Pompadour, which was very becoming.

Miss Gwin, who aided her mother in receiving, was charmingly dressed as a Greek Girl, in holiday costume. Over her dress of white satin, trimmed with cherry-colored satin stripes, she wore a skirt of tulle, trimmed with silver; her boddice jacket was of blue satin, trimmed with silver, and she wore a jaunty cap and boots of the same materials, with rich pearls braided in her hair and around her neck.

Miss Carrie Gwin, a younger sister, attended her mother as a Court Page, in a becoming doublet of maroon velvet, with white satin trunks, and long silken hose.

Senator Gwin, who is an athletic, gray-haired, fine-looking man, was in citizens' dress, and was attended by Mr. Wallack, of the Star, as private secretary, taking notes of all that transpired.

THE GUESTS.

President Buchanan was, of course, the "observed of all observers," and was surrounded by a motley group, with whom he exchanged many pleasant sallies of wit. All regretted that he was not accompanied by his niece, but "costume obligatory" was on the invitations, and she has not yet left off her mourning.

EXCEPTIONS TO THE RULE.

The President, the Cabinet and the Senate were permitted to wear their ordinary costumes. Secretary Cobb appeared to enjoy the gay scene vastly, and among the other wearers of black coats I noticed Senators Douglas, Seward, Crittenden, Hale, Mason, Hammond, King, Allen, Pugh, Jones and Hunter, who bore with great good nature the the good humored jests of the "funny people."

UNIFORMS.

The Turkish Admiral, in his gorgeously embroidered State uniform, was naturally an object of attention, and the gentlemen of his suite were also magnificently arrayed. They all seemed to consider fancy-balls an "institution," and were evidently much amused. Mr. Oscanyan wore a Suliote costume.

General Harney was in full uniform, as were General Jessup, Colonels Craig, Magruder and Johnson, Major Deas, and a good platoon of subalterns belonging to the United States Army. Colonel Shaffner, of Kentucky, wore the uniform which he appeared in at the Russian Court.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS.

Bluff and portly Sir Gore Ouseley wore his uniform as Knight Commander of the Bath; Lady Ouseley the becoming costume of a French Marchioness, and Miss Ouseley the dress of an Italian Peasant.

Lord Napier wore such a Court suit as was probably sported by the first British Minister to this country, the coat being of maroon-colored velvet, and the waistcoat and small clothes of white velvet—the whole trimmed with gold lace. Lady Napier wore a coresponding lady's costume at the close of the Seventeenth Century, very elegant and becoming.

Messrs. Hope, Russel and Marley, attachés to the British legation, were capitally dressed as a Greek, Friar Tuck and Nine of Diamonds.

M. de Stoeckl, the Russian Minister, came en Domino Noir, and appeared to enjoy the scene very much. His accomplished and elegant lady wore the historical costume of the Duchesse de Nemours, of Henri IV's time, with high-standing ruff and long waist.

Waldemar de Bodisco, Secretary to the Legation, (a nephew of the old Baron's,) was dressed as a Muscovite Postillion, but the red shirt was of silk, the black small-clothes were of velvet, and the whole was trimmed with rich gold lace.

Gen. Robles, the Mexican Minister, wore a Domino Gris.

Señor Muruqua, of the Spanish Legation, was dressed as a Ranchero, the costume being almost covered with gold embroidery.

The Count de Sartiges is on a visit to the North, but Messieurs Le Vicomte de Freillard, Dollfus, Gau, and Guiot, came as Pierrots, a costume only understood by those who have attended the balls at the Grand Opera. The large buttons on their white miller's coats were covered with satin of different colors.

Mrs. Senator Davis, of Mississippi, was exquisitely dressed as Madame De Staël, a character which she assumed with great vivacity and esprit.

Mrs. Senator Clay, of Alabama, appeared as Dame Partington, (relic of the sainted Paul,) attended by a mischievous Ike. Although innocent of the Yankee twang, she was a very amusing gossip, keeping a crowd around her throughout the evening. Her apparently inexhaustible wealth of anecdote, readiness of repartee, pliability of wit, and variety of humor, made her a most agreeable raconteuse.

Mrs. Senator Hale, of New-Hampshire, looked finely as a Spanish Duenna, with high comb, and a veil shading her classical features. Miss Hale, as Sunrise, her pink dress studded with stars, attracted general admiration.

Miss Cass, of Michigan, wore a splendid French Marquise dress, with a becoming hat, hair powdered, and rich jewels. Her brother-in-law, Hon. Henry Ledyard, wore an Egyptian Uniform, which he obtained when in the East with General Cass.

Mrs. Senator Douglas, of Illinois, as Aurora, was universally admired, and moved through the mazes of the dance like the Goddess of Day. Her hair was powdered with gold dust, and her gossamer-like dress of tulle was covered with spangles.

Mrs. Senator Thompson, of New Jersey, as the Cantonniere in L'Etoile du Nord, created a decided sensation, her joyous manners enabling her to act the part as capitally as she was dressed.

Mrs. Senator Pugh, of Ohio, "Walked in beauty like the Night," and was dressed with great taste in black, with gold stars, and a crescent moon on her head.

Mrs. Philip Clayton, of Georgia, as a Lady of the Republican Court, was splendidly dressed, with a sweeping train, and her hair powdered. Miss Clayton looked sweetly as a Peasant Girl.

Mrs. Daniel Sickles, of New York, as Little Red Riding Hood, attracted much admiration.

Mrs. R. W. Cameron, of New-York, as the Duchess of Coman, was magnificently dressed. Mr. Cameron wore the full costume of a Highland Chieftain, with jeweled dirks, plaid, pin and belt. It was decidedly the most splendid and correct Scotch dress present.

Mrs. Berg, of New-York, as an Indian Princess, was the most noticeable lady at the ball. Every portion of her elaborate costume was faithfully correct, and her fine tall form, black hair, and regular features added to the effect. Mr. Berg was dressed as Philip II., of Spain, a rich costume.

Miss Underwood, of Kentucky, (daughter of the member of Congress,) was superbly dressed as Lady Rowena, in white moire antique silk, with flounces of tulle, and a crimson velvet train, all trimmed with gold lace. Her sister appeared as a French Peasant Girl.

Miss Mollie Walker (daughter of the Hon. R. J. W.) was elaborately and beautifully dressed as a French Marchioness, and was attended by her father's friend, Mr. John Savage, editor of the States, as Sir Lucius O'Trigger.

Miss Beach, of Hartford, (who is staying with Secretary Toucey,) was bewitchingly dressed as a Gipsy, her sparkling black eyes enticing passers-by to place their fortunes at her disposal.

Mrs. Greenhow, of Washington, as a Housekeeper of the Old School, was an admirable representative of a gossiping, agreeable person, acquainted with every one present, and with everything that was going on.

Mrs. Hughes, of Virginia, (wife of the editor of the Union,) was Little Red Riding Hood, for which character her petite figure admirably adapted her. Mr. Hughes, in academical cap and gown, appeared as an Oxford Student.

Mrs. ——, (known to art-lovers by her maiden name of Barbara Smith,) was so disguised as an Algerian lady that few could make out who she was. It was one of the most original characters present.

Mrs. Hepburn wore a handsome Turkish Lady's dress and Mr. Hepburn an old English Court Costume.

Mrs. A. H. Evans, of Texas, was magnificently dressed as Isabella, Queen of Spain, in blue velvet, trimmed with ermine and gold lace. Mr. Evans was dressed with equal elegance, as Antipholus of Syracuse.

Miss Bartlett, of New-York, looked charmingly as the White Lady of Avenel, although her friends would have preferred to have seen her dressed as L'Impératrice Eugenie, whom she so closely resembles.

Miss Martha Haines Butt, of Norfolk, Va., (a popular and fascinating authoress,) appeared as Night, and had a galaxy of brilliant beaux around her the whole evening.

Mrs. Pendleton, of Cincinnati—a daughter of the author of the "Star Spangled Banner"—wore a costume emblematic of its bright stars and broad folds. Her brother, Phil. Barton Key, Esq., United States District-Attorney here, wore an English Hunting Dress.

The Hon. Mr. Hatch, of New-York, also appeared in scarlet and buff, looking the jovial huntsman to the life. Dr. Berry, of Washington; Mr. Bradford, Major Belger, Mr. Crawford and Mr. Tappan were also attired for the chase.

Lieutenant Mowry, the delegate from Arizona, as the Knight of Gwynne, wore a magnificent black velvet dress of the time of Charles II., slashed with white satin, and decked with several thousand dollars worth of diamonds. During the evening one diamond, worth about $500, slipped from its setting, but was fortunately found soon afterwards by a servant.

The Hon. John Cochrane, of New-York, wore a Matador's dress, trimmed with small buttons and embroidery of gold.

Mr. J. Buchanan Henry, the President's private secretary, wore a Court Dress of the olden time.

The Hon. Anson Burlingame, of Massachusetts, wore the becoming costume of Julian St. Pierre, of black velvet, slashed with pink satin.

The Hon. L. M. Keitt, of South Carolina, wore the royal purple costume of Charles II., and sustained the character admirably. He was accompanied by Mr. A. D. Banks, of Virginia, as Buckingham.

Mayor Magruder, of Washington, wore a Scotch Dress, and headed a numerous clan of Highlanders.

E Kingman, the well-known and much-respected correspondent, wore the identical Court Dress in which President Munroe was presented to Louis XVI. when he went as Minister to the Court of Versailles. It was loaned to him by S. Gouverneur, Esq., of your City.

Mr. McClure, of New-York, was dressed as Louis XI., of France, and a gorgeous costume it was. Mr. Shaw, of New-York, wore a Highland dress. Major Poore, of Boston, appeared as the Merry Monarch, and afterwards in a burlesque uniform, as Major Jack Downing. [Of the entire force of editors, correspondents and reporters invited, some seventy in all, only seven accepted.]

Mr. King, the veteran artist, appeared as Rubens, and Mr. Brady, of your city, as Vandyke—fine impersonations of those old masters.

But I must stop personal descriptions.

Arabella has aided me thus far, and we have jointly dashed off sketches of the more prominent personages. To chronicle the remaining four or five hundred is a task for which we neither have notes nor time, (to save to-day's mail,) and I doubt if the Times would be spacious enough to contain it. So, gentle reader, imagine the rest from the samples given you.

THE DANCING SALOONS.

The spacious saloons on the right of the hall, and a large dining-room at the rear of the house, were devoted to dancing, and the inspiring notes of Weber's band could be heard in all of them distinctly. The walls were festooned with rare flowers, and large mirrors imparted a buoyancy to the scene as they reflected the gay throng, which, by its changes in the dance, resembled the ever-varying and fanciful hues of a kaleidoscope. It was no easy matter for the counts, nobles and courtiers, (somewhat embarrassed by their swords,) to slide through the mazes of expanded silk, satin, tulle, and velvet. But every one was in the best of humor—even those who felt the most supremely ridiculous, in their assumed characters.

THE BANQUET.

This was served in two spacious rooms in the second story, where long and wide buffets were loaded with an avalanche of edibles. Gautier had carte blanche, and he filled up his carte with gastronomic wonders, comprising the chef d'œuvres of Parisian cookery, Italian confectionery, and American substantials, with the choicest fruits, embracing fresh grapes and strawberries in profusion. The strawberries were raised near this city, in hot-beds, and were an unexpected treat. It was indeed an imperial banquet, and there was no lack of rare and of sparkling wines, in which old friends pledged the memories of other days—new ones drank to better acquaintance—and many a bumper was drained to the Gwins. "Long may they wave!"

AND SO THE BALL WENT ON.

Arabella and myself had determined to come away about two, and send this by the morning mail, but my costume had no watch pocket, and when I ascertained the time, it was 4½ o'clock! This, oh Editor, is my excuse for your not receiving this on this same Friday night—but you will have it on Saturday morning, and if it gives any idea of the brilliancy of the scene, it will bear keeping. No language, however, can describe that brilliant mosaic of bright colors! There were satins, muslins, moire antique, gems, laces and illusion—like all the rainbows since the flood, crushed in one grand confusion. I've been at fancy balls before, but at none that did begin—to rival, in magnificence the ball of Madame Gwin.

[Errors Excepted.] ENOCH EASEL.

[It is all very well for Mr. Easel to promise us his letter on Saturday morning;—but though he proposes, it is, in this instance, Uncle Sam that disposes. His epistle, mailed on Friday afternoon, reached us on Monday morning. Where it has lain meantime, whether in the Post-Office at Washington, or at the Post-Office in this City, is probably among the official secrets which will never be divulged. This sort of official defalcation is becoming a good deal too common for our comfort.—Ed. Times.]

SOUVENIRS DU BAL—REAPPEARANCE OF THE CHARACTERS—SATURDAY RECEPTIONS—HYMENIAL FESTIVITIES—MORE COSTUMES TALKED OF—AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE.

Correspondence of the New-York Times:

Washington, Saturday, April 10, 1858.

Bear witness, remunerating publishers, that I do not omit my required Saturday epistle, but this Revue de la Semaine will be like the play of "Hamlet" with the part of the princely Dane omitted—for the chief topic of gossip faithfully chronicled for the Times, was sent North yesterday afternoon. That same fancy ball, however, has been discussed to a Kansas-like extent, and fabulous editions of the States and of the Star have been sold, although the knowing-ones are waiting to see the Times' report, "with Arabella's opinions."

It is generally conceded that the hostess was the finest-looking lady present, that Mrs. Douglas was the handsomest, that Miss Mechlin was the prettiest, that Miss Beach was the most fascinating, that Mrs. Berg was the most correctly costumed, that Mrs. Clay was the most amusing, and that the whole affair was a decided success! So Arabella informs me, and she also says that those who stayed away are purple with rage at not being able to pick any flaws, either in the costumes or the characters of those who did go.

Yesterday morning, the late breakfasters at the National determined to "wind up" the ball, very much as the Parisian masquraders congregate to enjoy la descente de la courtille. Mesdames Crittenden and Hale consented to matronise the "sequel," and a semi-fancy ball was improvised. Very many of the ladies who were at Mrs. Gwin's reappeared in their fancy dresses, and with them those attendant cavaliers whose deguisemens had not been hired for the night previous and returned. The Turks and Gen. Harney appeared, of course, in "full regulation." Mrs. Scott, wife of the member from California, (who had not been able to be present at Mrs. Gwin's,) appeared as Night, creating quite a sensation, and Miss Butt, the Virginia authoress, who had personated that starry character the evening previous, was dressed as Caprice. It was a very pleasant affair, and all the more so because it was unexpected. Arabella was charmed with it.

The "reception" at the White House this morning was not very numerously attended, but those who were there enjoyed the Spring-like appearance of the southern lawn, which has already been mown, and which is bordered with beds filled with hyacinths, crocuses and daffodils. The thermometer showed a temperature of 82 degrees, and the conservatory was thrown open to receive the balmy and Spring-like atmosphere in exchange for its odorous temperature. In addition to the magnificent and fragrant collection of plants, singing-birds are to delight the visitors to this Temple of Flora, from which I really find it difficult to get Arabella away when we visit it.

At Mrs. Douglas', Arabella endeavored to ascertain if there was any truth that a Fancy Ball is to be given by that lady, but without success. Neither could she extract from Mrs. Slidell whether the speech made by her husband in the Senate, on Cuban and Mexican affairs, had been approved by the President. Either lady was diplomatically reserved, and evaded a direct reply as gracefully as does Lady Ouseley when asked how long she intends remaining here. N'importe. All of these things will be known in due time, for it will be no more possible to keep them en cachette than it will be to preserve silence as to the extraordinary diplomatic negotiations now being conducted at the State Department. The intimate social relations between some of the clerks in that "circumlocution office," and newspaper men about town, would baffle the most mysterious Free Masons, and in a day or two—mark my words—a leak will be sprung.

The wedding announced in my postscript of last week is to come off with great eclat, and a fashionable throng will witness the ceremony which will make Miss Sallie Toombs Mrs. De Bose. On the 17th they will receive their friends at her father's house, and as the Senator from Georgia is noted for his hospitality, a brilliant affair is anticipated. Arabella describes the bride's trousseau as magnificent, and is in raptures about the wedding presents.

Rumors are afloat that Fancy Balls may be given at the British Embassy, and at the Postmaster General's but I am of opinion that the "wish is father to the thought." Should Miss Saunders undertake to give one of these entertainments, or to organize dramatic tableaux, (another on dit,) she would doubtless be as successful as she has hitherto been in eclipsing all would-be rivals.

Having disposed of the can-cans, let me give the readers of the Times a subject for a poem or a picture. While the President was at dinner on Friday, with a small party of Congressmen at his table, he received a note from Mrs. Benton Jones, stating that her father had frequently, of late, wished to see his old political colleague. Mr. Buchanan immediately hastened to the bedside of the dying statesman, and they were left alone. The Chief Magistrate of the Republic, bending over the couch, received the counsel of the veteran statesman, and was admonished not to put his trust in designing men, but to trust in that God, before whose throne one of those prominent men has already bowed, and the other must, in the natural order of things, soon appear.

ENOCH EASEL.

Henry Clay's Birth-Day in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Monday, April 12.

A mass meeting of the friends of Henry Clay and opponents of the Administration was held at National Hall this evening, for the purpose of celebrating his birth-day and moving for the establishment of a National Party.

The meeting was not very large, the weather being extremely inclement. The eminent gentlemen who it was promised would address the meeting were not present.

Among the resolutions adopted were the following:

Resolved, That the friends and supporters of the rights of the People be, and they hereby are invited to join in a great "National Party," the object of which shall be to watch over and defend them—a party which shall embrace, according to its name, the combined energies of the country, without regard to minor subjects of difference, whether of a local or personal character, and with a firm determination to maintain, against all encroachments, the privileges of freemen.

Resolved, That official dictation and tyranny have reached a point which requires prompt, disinterested, and unequivocal resistance. This Executive oppression overshadows, and has so denounced upon the floor of Congress, not only the independence of all subordinate officers, but threatens the liberty of thought, speech, and action in the recesses of professional and private life.

At daybreak a national salute of eight guns in honor of the day was fired here—and at noon a national salute of eight guns was fired in Southwark, and a like number in Kensington.

Interesting from New-Mexico, &c.

St. Louis, Monday, April 12.

Colonel St. Vrain arrived here yesterday from Santa Fé with the advance mail. He reports that Captain Marcy left the camp ground, forty miles from Fort Union, on the 18th of March. He had about twelve hundred animals, mostly mules, an abundant supply of forage, and plenty of provisions for his men. One hundred and fifty regular troops, and the same number of herdsmen and mountaineers, were with him, and he expressed entire confidence in being able to reach Camp Scott without difficulty. He intended to travel slowly so as to keep the animals in good condition, but expected to join Colonel Johnston before the 1st of May.

An express from Fort Leavenworth, with orders to General Garland to furnish money, with a strong escort, was met on the 19th of March, six miles east of Santa Fé.

A large number of Indians were also met, all of whom expressed a desire for peace with the Americans.

The grass on the plains was growing rapidly.

The Republican learns that, on March 27, a hurricane passed over Bentonville, Ark., blowing down nearly every house in the town, killing 25 persons, and wounding a great number of others.

The Rise in the Mississippi River.

New-Orleans, Monday, April 12.

The river still continues very high. The water run over the levees in several places on this side the river, near the city, but the damages have been repaired. On the opposite side a crevasse of 300 feet is overflowing the plantations. Other crevasses are reported above. A heavy rain yesterday completely flooded the streets. The wind to-day is very high.

The reports from Vicksburg say that the river is stationary there, but that it is falling above. Several levees below that point had been broken, destroying an immense amount of property. The crevasse opposite this city is doing immense damage to the plantations, but the city itself is now considered out of danger.

Hartford City Election.

Hartford, Conn., Monday, April 12.

Our annual City Election came off to-day and was hotly contested on both sides. The Democrats ran for Mayor John A. Taintor, and the Republicans Timothy M. Allyn. The latter was elected Mayor by 212 majority. The Democrats elect a Collector, two city Sheriffs, and carry three Wards. The Opposition elect their Mayor, City Clerk, Auditor, and Water Commissioner, and carry three Wards. This gives the minor appointments to the Opposition. Last year the Democrats carried the city by majorities ranging from one to five hundred.

News by the Southern Mail.

Washington, Monday, April 12.

The mail from all points South, as late as due, is to hand.

The accounts of the crops from Texas are encouraging. Wheat and corn were beyond the danger of rains.

The ship National Guard had cleared from Galveston for Liverpool, with 3,000 bales of cotton.

Colonel Ripley had declined locating the Government Arsenal at San Antonio on account of the high prices of land.

Great Storm at the West.

Sandusky, Ohio, Monday, April 12.

The storm and the high state of the water in the Sandusky River yesterday, caused considerable damage to the docks, store-houses and lumber yards here. The Cleveland and Toledo Railroad lost nearly two-thirds of the cribbing across the east end of the bay, also one mile of the track near Port Clinton. The trains will not be able to resume their trips before three days. The water has not been known to be so high for many years.

United States Supreme Court.

Washington, Thursday, April 8.

No. 11—Robert Taylors Administrators vs. Nathaniel Carryl. Argument commenced for plaintiffs.

No. 56—G. W. Watterson vs. Andrew M. Payne. Chief-Justice Taney delivered the opinion of the Court, overruling the motion for leave to argue the cause.

Anti-Lecompton Meeting at Albany.

Albany, Monday, April 12.

The union Anti-Lecomptonites held a large meeting in the outer hall of the Capitol to-night, preparatory to the election to-morrow. The meeting was addressed by John N. Wilder, Esq., Senators Stow, Laflin and Diven; and Assemblymen Law, Van Valkenburgh, Charles H. Adams, and several others. The meeting was quite enthusiastic.

Pullen, the Custom-House Robber.

Richmond, Va., Monday, April 12.

Pullen, the Custom-House robber, to day plead guilty, and has been sentenced to eight years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Fire in Woonsocket.

Woonsocket, R. I., Monday, April 12.

A fire in this place this morning destroyed the Baptist Church and some adjoining buildings. The property is mostly insured.

The "Little" Murder Trial.

Rochester, Monday, April 12.

The trial of Stout and Mrs. Little, for the murder of C. W. Little, commences this afternoon.

Acquittal of Bolton.

Louisville, Ky., Monday, April 12.

The Jury in the case of Bolton, charged with the murder of McMillan, to-day rendered a verdict of acquittal.

The Star of the South at Savannah.

Savannah, Monday, April 12.

The United States Mail steamship Star of the South, from New-York, arrived yesterday, all well.

The Queen proposes to honor the coming musical festival at Birmingham with her presence. It is stated that her Majesty has never visited that city since her accession to the throne. Her last visit was made at the age of 14.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT—Chambers.

Before the Hon. Justice Sutherland.

Yesterday morning, while Judge SUTHERLAND was sitting at Circuit, Mr. James T. Brady appeared and obtained from him the following order, commanding Conover to deliver up possession of the Street Commissioner's office:

The People of the State of New-York and Charles Devlin vs. Daniel D. Conover.—On reading and filing the remittitur from the Court of Appeals, in the above-entitled action, by which it appears that after hearing counsel for the respective parties upon the appeal taken to said Court of Appeals, from the judgment rendered at the General Term of this Court, on the 11th day of March last, the said judgment of this Court is in all things affirmed, with the costs of the appeal, to be paid by the said Conover to the plaintiffs herein, and that the said record and proceedings are remitted to this Court, to be proceeded upon according to law, and the plaintiff appearing and waiving such costs: On motion of James T. Brady, Esq., of counsel for the plaintiffs, it is ordered that said Charles Devlin have execution of such judgment. That the said Daniel D. Conover be ousted and excluded from the office of Street Commissioner of said City, and that the said Charles Devlin be admitted and put into the possession thereof, and of all the maps, books, documents and papers appertaining thereto; and that the said Daniel D. Conover surrender such office to the said Devlin, and deliver to him all books, maps, documents, papers and property appertaining to said office.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Will be published April 15,
LIFE THOUGHTS:
Gathered from the Extemporaneous Discourses of
HENRY WARD BEECHER.

The Publishers take pleasure in calling attention to this book, believing that it fairly merits the epithet extraordinary.

A member of Mr. Beecher's Society, feeling impelled to catch and preserve some of the exquisite images, the truths crystallized into poetry, and the far-seeing, but genial wisdom, which otherwise would have had no memorial save in the hearts of the hearers—made copious notes of his sermons, and from them has selected the volume of extracts now presented to the public.

Whether it is regarded as a collection of literary gems, or as a series of striking thoughts on Christianity and its related themes, the book will not suffer by comparison with the most famous of similar compilations in the language.

The publishers believe that, sooner or later, these LIFE THOUGHTS will be found in the hands of every reflecting reader in the country. It is not a "sensation book;" but it has so much of power, and so much of beauty, that it will exert an influence which no generous, appreciative soul can resist.

In one volume 12mo., 300 pp. Price $1,
With a copious Analytical Index
On receipt of the price, a copy will be mailed, pre-paid, to any address in the United States.

First night of the
MONSTER QUADRILLE.
The Zouaves on the Malakoff.
GRAND BATTLE QUADRILLE,
Descriptive of the storming of the Malakoff.
FIRING OF HEAVY ARTILLERY PIECES.
EXPLOSION OF THE MALAKOFF.
First night of the
EXPRESS GALLOP,
At which will be employed the extensive and new machinery, imported from Paris, descriptive of a railroad train.
PROGRAMME—PART I.
1. Overture (William Tell) .... Rossini
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
2. Le Cent. Suisse (Quadrille) with solos .. Musard (pere)
LEGENDRE, MOREAU, EBEN, DONIZETTI,
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
3. Air of the Page (The Huguenots) .... Meyerbeer
MADAME D'ANGRI.
4. The Express Railroad gallop, arranged by...... Musard
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
THE EXPRESS GALLOP
forms a grand musical picture of the rapid and exciting impressions of a journey by railroad. It describes:
1 The gathering of the passengers at the dépôt, and the usual hurry and confusion on that occasion.
2. The conductor's whistle and locomotive bell.
3. The departure of the train; the locomotive carefully pulsing through the streets darts quickly into the open country—hot and furious—gaining strength with its activity, it hurries onward to its distant goal. Bang! A roadside station is passed. Still more steam. The train approaches the tunnel. The steam-whistle gives the signal. The locomotive slackens its speed. It passes through, and traverses once more the open country, until the station appears in the dim distance. The engineer gives the signal, the brakemen take their places, and the train cautiously approaches the dépôt. The last throes of the locomotive as it runs into the machine-shop. Blowing off steam. The end of the journey.
The spirited melody of this gallop will recommend itself to all hearers. The audience will be carried along as the composer intended. But there are several points to which attention is called. These are the methods of imitating the various engineering characteristics of a railroad trip, such as the puffing of the locomotive, the whiz of the cars, &c., by an ingenious distribution of the instruments of the orchestra aided by certain machinery brought by M. Musard from Paris, but there being an important difference between a French locomotive and an American one, M. Musard consulted "local truth," and had a new machine manufactured expressly for his use at the celebrated Novelty Works. This machine will be used in the performance of the Express Galop.
5. Celestine (Polka Rondo for cornet) .... Legendre
Monsieur LEGENDRE,
6. Les Zouaves on the Malakoff .... Musard
GRAND BATTLE QUADRILLE.
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
The idea of the Battle Quadrille is taken from an incident during the war in the Crimea, according to which the Zouaves played the well-known vaudeville "Le Piano de Berthe," in the middle of which they were called away to storm the Korniloff. After having covered themselves with glory in gaining possession of the Bastion, a second lieutenant proposed to finish the interrupted play, and it was brought to an end amid the cheers of the French camp.
The first four movements of Les Zouaves consist of the "sets" which a military band would be likely to play. The fifth figure commences and the dance progresses with the best possible spirit when suddenly an alarm is heard. In a moment the note of preparation is taken up on all sides. Batalion replies to the summons and the troops fall in. The drums and clarions convey the idea of assembling multitudes, and the march which follows conducts the mind to the contemplation of a martial achievement. As troop after troop, and batalion after batalion disappear, the music becomes more subdued; the French steal silently through their trenches and after a murderous struggle succeed in hoisting the tri-color on the Korniloff Bastion. Then the Zouaves, with reckless daring, and that elasticity of temper for which they are remarkable, return to the camp and finish their interrupted bal.
Some astonishing effects, never before introduced in orchestral work, are wrought out in the most skillful manner in this Quadrille. All the frightful tumult of a hot engagement is conveyed to the audience with startling reality, and it will be observed that the Quadrille, from beginning to end, never deviates from its true military character.
INTERMISSION.
PART II.
The commencement of the second part of the Concert will be notified by the
SOUNDING OF A GONG.
1. Overture (Fra Diavolo) .... Auber
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
2. Ocean Breezes (Valtz with cornet solo) .... Strauss.
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
3. Fantasia (Elisir d'Amore) .... Thalberg
SIGISMUND THALBERG.
4. The Cattle Show (Comic quadrille) .... Musard
Boeufs and moutons (beef and mutton.)
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
This Quadrille, which is simple "jeu d'esprit," has been composed by Musard, during the agricultural fair held at the French Crystal Palace in 1856, and played for the first time at the dinner given by the French Government to the successful exhibitors.
The flocks and herds as they descend the mountain side are gathered together by the shepherd. The bell-wethers are placed in front and lead the way to the city show. The basing of the lambs, the lowing of the cows, the roaring of the bulls, are imitated in the orcestra with the regular instruments.
5. The Rataplan .... Malibran
Mme. D'ANGRI.
6. Variations (Ophicleide) .... Moreau
Mons MOREAU.
7. The Military Polka .... Musard
THE MONSTER ORCHESTRA.
THE FULL AND AUTHENTIC PROGRAMME,
containing an explanation of the descriptive pieces and the words of the different songs, has been prepared. It will, besides, contain
THE PIANO-FORTE ARRANGEMENT
of the Zouaves and the Cattle Show Quadrilles. From a desire to popularize Musard's compositions as rapidly as possible, they will be sold at the low price of 25 cents each.
THE PRICE OF ADMISSION
has been fixed to all parts of the Academy at FIFTY CENTS
Reserved seats and tickets may be had at the office of the Academy of Music, at C. BREUSING'S, No. 701 Broadway, and SIBELL'S, No. 20 Wall-st., corner of Nassau.

THE FUTURE OF WOMAN IN AMERICA.—A course of Lectures will be given at Mozart Hall, No. 663 Broadway, opposite Bond-st., on the following subject:
Woman and her Work.—The Rev. E. H. CHAPIN—THURSDAY, April 15.
Woman and the Elective Franchise.—Mrs. LUCY STONE—THURSDAY, April 22.
Benefit to Woman of Organized Emigration.—The Hon. ELI THAYER.
These Lectures are given in aid of the Shirt Sewers' and Seamstresses' Union, No 1 Astor place. The Lecturers have generously undertaken the series in view of the importance of the subjects to be discussed.
WOMAN'S SPHERE.
In New-York City alone $13,000,000 is a low estimate of the annual expense of preventable sickness. This deeply concerns Woman. Dr. CHAPIN, in examining the great evil of over work or no work, will clearly demonstrate that her sphere is bounded only by humanity itself, and that the time has come when full opportunities should be granted to Woman to do her work well.
Ladies desiring to hear these Lectures, can attend without embarrassment, as seats are secured as stated below:
Admission 50 cents.
Doors open at 7; Lecture commences at 8.
No extra charge for reserved seats.
The sale of reserved seats will commence (only) at WM. HALL & SONS, No 239 Broadway, on WEDNESDAY, the 14th inst., at 9 o'clock A. M.
Tickets may also be had at all the principal book and music stores on Broadway.

GYMNASIUM AND FENCING ACADEMY, Stuyvesant Institute, No 659 Broadway.—Mr. HENRY GEBHARD'S celebrated system of HYGIENIC GYMNASTICS for gentlemen of mature years, will be taught every morning from 6 to 10 o'clock, and from 8 to 10 o'clock evenings. Also, there are classes for young gentlemen and little boys from 3 to 14 years.
LADIES' GYMNASTICS AND CALISTHENIC INSTITUTION.
Classes meet every morning at 10 o'clock, and on Wednesday and Saturday at 4 o'clock, exclusively.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

TO HOTEL KEEPERS—A SPLENDID OPportunity offers for any person or persons who desire to commence the business of first class hotel keeping upon an extensive scale; an opportunity that is very enviable, and to proper persons the premises will be favorably leased, and the furniture and fixtures complete and perfect, which cost One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, sold upon very favorable terms; say one-fifth cash and the balance on time, secured. No extra expense necessary to commence operations. No communications noticed unless accompanied with real name and reference, with particulars as to responsibility and capability, all of which will be strictly confidential, and if satisfactory, an interview will be arranged. Address WM. W. L. RUPERT, Post-Office, New-York.

BOOKSTORE FOR SALE.—THE STOCK, good-will and fixtures of the old and well-known Bookselling Establishment No. 222 Broadway, corner of Ann-st., together with the lease of the premises, which secures them at a very moderate rent.

The above valuable situation presents the most favorable opportunity for bookselling enterprise that has offered for years. The business has been in successful operation for fifteen years, and can be shown to be prosperous; and as a retail or a Gift Enterprise stand, the location is unequaled by any other in the City. Apply to W. A. TOWNSEND, late Stringer & Townsend, No. 222 Broadway, New-York, under the American Museum.

TO BUILDERS AND CONTRACTORS.—100,000 feet of Ashler and Rubble Ashler Free Stone, suitable for churches and other buildings, now quarried and ready for delivery, at short notice, by the Jersey Little Falls Manufacturing Company. Also 10,000 tons building stone. Apply at the office of the Company, No. 1 Hanover Buildings, New York.

ICE FOR SALE.—SEVERAL HUNDRED TONS of clear water ice, from 8 to 10 inches thick, mostly in cakes 2 feet square; will be delivered at any wharf in New-York, Brooklyn or Jersey City, in lots from 25 to 100 tons at a few days notice. If sold immediately the price will be very low. Apply to J. LOMAS, Fishkill Landing.

PARTNER WANTED—WITH A CAPITAL OF $5,000 OR $10,000.—The advertiser has had a long experience in one of the first private banking houses in the City, and proposes to go into the business of buying and selling Stocks, Bonds, Exchange, &c., on commission; also, to negotiate loans and mercantile paper. References of the first character will be given. Address A. Z., box No. 3,132 Post-Office.

FOR SALE—STEAMER WORCESTER, NOW RUNning on the Norwich line for Boston, in good order and condition; has first-class state-rooms and berths for 900 passengers, and large freight capacity; very light on coal; light draft of water. For further information, inquire of E S MARTIN, agent, Pier No. 18 North River, foot Cortlandt-st.

HOSIERY AND FANCY GOODS STORE TO LET—The store situated on the southwest corner of 6th-av. and 14th-st., with a lease for three years from the first of May next. The location is unsurpassed, and an extensive business has been carried on there for the last six years. Further particulars may be obtained from F. E. SMITH, No. 727 Broadway.

REMOVAL OF THE TIMES OFFICE.

On or about the 1st of May the TIMES Establishment will be removed to the new TIMES BUILDING upon Park Row, Spruce-street and Nassau-street. We are now engaged in putting up new steam boilers and engines, and HOE'S Ten Cylinder Presses, in the vaults of the new building, and as soon as these are ready for use the removal will take place. When once established in our new quarters, we hope to introduce various additions and improvements in the management of THE TIMES, from which we have been precluded hitherto by lack of space and other needed facilities.

The business of THE TIMES is steadily and rapidly increasing. Our circulation is constantly extended, and our daily receipts for Advertising were never larger than they are at present. Our new Building has been constructed expressly for the accommodation of our business, and will permit of its extension to an unlimited extent. It is perfectly fire-proof, being built of stone, brick and iron from top to bottom, and is beyond question the finest Newspaper Establishment in the world. We shall do everything in our power to render THE TIMES itself fully worthy of its new habitation.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The America's mails reached this City yesterday morning from Boston, but the telegram from Halifax, published on Saturday, embraced all the principal features of the news. Beyond the confirmation of the announcement received by the previous steamer, of the appointment of the Duke DE MALAKOFF as French Ambassador to England, the political intelligence is wholly without interest. A statement is made by an English Provincial journal that a man, supposed to be ALLSOPP, had been arrested at Keadul The prisoner answered closely to the description of ALLSOPP, and was remanded for future examination. Mr. ALLSOPP declares that he is not in a position to encounter the expenses of a State trial, and offers to give himself up if the Government will bear the cost of his defence. Such a proposition, of course, could not be accepted. The London Times, in an article which we copy elsewhere, gives an encouraging account of the progress of the Atlantic telegraph enterprise.

We receive, by the America, correspondence and papers from Hong Kong, China, to the 28th of January. The Cantonese were, at that date, returning to their city, and were beginning to look with confidence on the administration of its Government under an Anglo-French Protectorate. The forthcoming demonstration against Pekin is spoken of as a settled part of the policy of the European Powers to bring the Emperor of China to terms. Our correspondent makes some sad representations of the inefficiency of the United States squadron in the China seas—representations which fully confirm the views we have from time to time expressed on our relations with the Celestial Empire. And, in connection with this subject, we publish a communication from a reliable Boston correspondent, which completely refutes the pretension that the United States have no cause of complaint against the Chinese Government. We have, in fact, more serious complaints against them than either France, England or Russia. It will be seen, with satisfaction, that Mr. REED has made a movement to suppress the iniquitous Coolie traffic. Our Commissioner has received the original copy of the Cushing treaty between the United States and China, which never left the possession of YEH till it fell into the hands of the British as one of the spoils of war.

The United States Senate yesterday received a message from the House of Representatives, announcing the adherence of the House to its vote on the Kansas bill—also that it had passed the Deficiency bill. Mr. GREEN, of Missouri, gave notice that he would move to take up the Kansas bill to-day, at 1 o'clock P. M., when it will be seen what action the majority of the Senate intend to propose in regard to the measure—whether a Conference or the entire relinquishment of Lecompton. Mr. HALE, of New-Hampshire, presented a petition from inmates of the Military Asylum, which was referred to a Special Committee. The Senate then adjourned to attend the funeral of the Hon. THOMAS H. BENTON. The House of Representatives adjourned immediately after the journal was read, to attend Col. BENTON'S funeral.

The State Senate was engaged all the morning yesterday in the passage of bills, among which were the bill relative to wharves and slips in this City which may be leased to steamboat companies, and the bill relative to the classification of the Supervisors of this City. In the Assembly, the Registry law, as passed by the Senate, was referred to be reported complete. During the afternoon session a large number of bills were moved forward by the "Grinding Committee," and the Brooklyn Broadway Railroad bill was reported complete. A Regent of the University, in place of the Hon. JOHN GREIG, deceased, is to be elected on Wednesday.

The State Senate yesterday concurred with the Canal Board in the reduction of Canal tolls, agreed upon the day previous. The vote stood 20 in favor to 9 against the reduction.

By a late arrival from Santa Fé, at St. Louis, we learn that Captain MARCY left his camp ground, forty miles from Fort Union, on the 18th of March, on his way to Camp Scott to rejoin Colonel JOHNSTON. He had about twelve hundred animals, mostly mules, an abundant supply of forage, and plenty provisions for his men. He intended to travel slowly, so as to keep the animals in good condition, but expected to reach Camp Scott before the 1st of May.

The rooms of the Academy of Design, in Tenth-street, were thrown open last evening to a company of seven or eight hundred invited guests, who were admitted to a private view of the Thirty-third Annual Exhibition, preparatory to the public opening to-day. More than half the company were ladies, whose presence banished the wines and closed the era of supper-table speeches. The change was not to be regretted, for the scene remained gay and brilliant till near midnight.

Yesterday Mr. BRADY obtained from Judge SUTHERLAND an order, under the Court of Appeals decision, ousting CONOVER and putting DEVLIN in possession of the Street Commissioner's office.

At the Board of Aldermen, last evening, quite a number of petitions were received, asking for the removal of CHARLES DEVLIN as Street Commissioner. A communication was received from the Mayor, removing him, and asking the concurrence of the Board. The entire subject was referred to a Special Committee of which Alderman MCSPEDON is Chairman, without any debate on the merits of the question. The report reversing the decision of the Fire Commissioners, disbanding No. 16, was adopted.

The General Markets, yesterday, were dull and heavy for Cotton. A better supply at easier prices, induced more activity in flour. Wheat was scarce and quiet. Corn was more freely offered and purchased. Prices open much lower than on Saturday, but they closed with reviving firmness. Provisions were in fair demand, including Mess Pork at $17 50 ℔ bbl. and strictly prime lard at 10⅞c.@10¾c. ℔ lb. Coffee was pretty brisk and buoyant. Spirits Turpentine advanced to 50c., cash, ℔ gallon, with liberal sales. No important alterations occurred in other branches of trade

Mr. Cholwell and His Relatives.

Senator SPINOLA declared in the recent debate on the Police Bill, that some twenty-five or thirty individuals, friends and connections of the Police Commissioners, are in receipt of pay as policemen, without doing duty: in other words, that they draw $800 a year of the public money for nothing. Amongst these are a brother and brother-in-law of Commissioner CHOLWELL, and a brother and brother-in-law of Commissioner NYE. As the charge contained in this allegation is somewhat startling, and is entirely ex parte, we are not prepared to express a decided opinion upon it until the Commissioners have said about it, anything they have got to say. Mr. CHOLWELL, however, has put in his answer, in the shape of an affidavit, by Mr. WILLIAM E. BRUSH, which appeared in our columns yesterday morning, and in which he alleges that he himself is the only brother-in-law of Mr. CHOLWELL, and that THOMAS CHOLWELL is "the only brother" of Mr. CHOLWELL now serving in the police force, and that both have actually performed the duties of their office up to the present time. Mr. BRUSH, moreover, gives us an account of the various promotions he has undergone, and we find he is now enjoying the position of Sergeant of the Ninth Precinct, and that "the only brother" has been detailed for duty at the Mayor's Office.

For anything we know to the contrary, both Mr. BRUSH and Mr. CHOLWELL are very worthy men in their way, and fully deserve to be made sergeants of, or detailed, or told off, or deployed, or thrown out, or put through any other process or manœuvre known in the service to which they belong. But we must say that, considering the relationship in which they stand to one of the Commissioners, their appointment to the force at all was a very improper proceeding, and one which tends to subvert discipline, promote intrigue and corruption, and utterly to destroy public confidence in the Police Department. After all the time and labor which have been bestowed upon this new Police system, and the strenuous efforts that have been made to render it efficient, useful and free from corruption, it is somewhat disheartening to find that any Commissioner may be allowed to convert it into an asylum for his needy relatives, with either the sanction or connivance of the others. It is most disreputable that in any such organization, an officer of Mr. CHOLWELL'S position should have his brother and brother-in-law in the ranks. The natural and unavoidable consequence of such appointments as BRUSH'S and THOMAS CHOLWELL'S is to introduce favoritism.

It is all nonsense to tell us that Commissioners' "only brothers in-law" and "only brothers," will be treated exactly as other men are, and that their promotion will be made to depend solely on their deserts. Any one who recommends his brother for patrolman will recommend him for Sergeant or Deputy-Inspector without much regard to the public service. And we cannot imagine anything more disheartening for the other efficient and well-behaved men of the body, than to find that while they have to encounter rowdies and thieves in the routine duties of the profession, its rewards are swallowed by hungry members of the Commissioners' own families. Appointing people Policemen because they are relatives of members of the Board, is, it seems to us, in no way an improvement upon FERNANDO WOOD'S old system of appointing them for fighting for him at the polls. We are very sorry that two such near relatives of Mr. CHOLWELL have no better way of making a livelihood than by serving as policemen, and sorrier still that Mr. CHOLWELL himself has not had sufficient tact and delicacy to perceive that this way was a fraud upon the public.

MASQUERADES AND FANCY BALLS.—A very grand fancy dress ball has recently been given at the national metropolis by the lady of a California Senator, and we are threatened with a real masquerade on the Parisian plan at the Academy of Music next week. We do not seriously apprehend there is any danger of such entertainments becoming popular or frequent here, but there are two very good reasons why they might. There are so many people of both sexes who would be glad to avail themselves of an opportunity to drop their own characters and adopt new ones, even for one night only, that we imagine a fancy dress ball, where no one is admitted but in an assumed character and a fancy dress, would always be crowded. At the fancy ball in Washington, last week, it appears that a few eminent gentlemen, who had characters to be proud of, were admitted without undergoing any sartorial metempsychosis, but all the rest were obliged to put on a character, and among the rest one of our City representatives, Mr. JOHN COCHRANE, we observe by the reports published by the metropolitan Jenkinses, went in the character of a matador. Perhaps he felt it his duty, as Chairman of the Committee on Commerce, to indicate his antagonism to "bulls." As to the Academy balls with which we are threatened, unless Justice WELSH should interfere to prevent them, we think it is very proper that the ladies should be permitted to wear masks, for those who will be most likely to go ought not to be permitted to show their faces in any respectable company. Therefore, masks will be both becoming and necessary.

DECLINE OF SLAVERY—THE COMING ISSUE IN MISSOURI.—An article in the St. Louis Republican asserts that the general election in Missouri on the 2d of August next, is to turn upon the distinct issue of emancipation. It does not appear that any specific measure will then be presented by the opponents of Slavery, though the Republican takes care to suggest that the Constitution of the State makes it obligatory to remunerate the owners, which it says will cause a debt of fifty millions of dollars.

It has been known for several years that a movement was in progress to eradicate Slavery from Missouri. With this project Northern Abolitionism has had no efficient connection. It exists within that State itself, growing out of a conviction that the property of her people would be enhanced; and the best service which foreign Abolitionists can render, is to let the matter entirely alone. Missouri is perhaps the most favored State in the Union if regard be had to soil, location, climate, and mineral wealth. Yet Slavery has obviously and notoriously retarded her progress. It is impossible for her citizens not to observe how her free neighbors outstrip her, though, owing to natural advantages, her growth could not be wholly checked.

The number of Slaves in Missouri is small in proportion to the population. We give a statement showing the increase for forty years:

	Population.	Slaves.
1810	20,845	3,011
1820	66,586	10,222
1830	140,445	25,081
1840	383,702	58,240
1850	682,044	87,422

With Free States on three sides, emancipation is only a question of time. Indeed, there is reason to believe that a majority of the inhabitants are all ready for it, as a candidate for Governor, in August last, understood to favor freedom, lacked a few votes of election. Indeed, one of the best proofs that such is the state of public sentiment may be found in the earnest voice of warning which the Republican, a zealous Pro-Slavery journal, feels impelled to raise. We look upon the abolition of Slavery by the people of the border Slave States as an inevitable and most interesting event. Already the Slaveholders are beginning to prepare for it, by selling their slaves to go further South. This process of transportation will be quickened as the approach of emancipation becomes obvious, so that the burden of remunerating the masters will be small. The day is not very distant when Slavery will find its sole refuge in the cotton and sugar States.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND CUBA.—Senator SLIDELL, who probably enjoys more of Mr. BUCHANAN'S confidence, and knows more of his plans and purposes, than any other member of his party, in or out of the Cabinet, in his recent speech on the neutrality laws, thus referred to the Cuban question:

> "When I made, four years since, a movement for the suspension of our neutrality laws, I believed, as I now believe, that a large majority of the people of Cuba was prepared to throw off the yoke of their transatlantic oppressors, and, so far as my influence or counsels could be useful, I was willing to aid them. I believed then, as I now believe, that a hostile feeling towards us then existed with the Governments of France and Great Britain, and that they desired to Africanize Cuba. I avail myself, gladly, of the occasion to say that such, I am satisfied, is not now the feeling of these Governments. Besides this, the people of Cuba, although still desirous of peaceful annexation, are not willing to run the risk of civil war and servile insurrection, to become members of our Confederacy. Public policy must accommodate itself to circumstances, and any attempt to obtain Cuba, except by negotiation, should, in my opinion, now be abandoned. But should Spain be rash enough to invade Mexico, with the purpose of establishing a despotic Government there under the name of SANTA ANNA as Dictator, or under any other name or title, then I think that our citizens should be permitted to take part in the contest. I wish this to be done legally. All the power of the Government cannot restrain them from doing it, and there should be no law on our Statute-book that cannot be enforced."

These are important and interesting declarations, and indicate a marked change of policy on the part of the Administration. There is no reason why England and France should be opposed to our possession of Cuba, provided we can acquire it peacefully, and with the assent of Spain. It is generally understood that both countries have abandoned whatever notions they may have ever entertained of acquisition or dominion in Central America, and only desire a free and unrestricted enjoyment of such transit advantages across the Isthmus as may hereafter be established. They have no occasion, therefore, to fear the increased military strength which the possession of Cuba would bring to us. And in every other point of view they would reap decided benefit from its transfer to the United States.

Still, it is not likely that Spain is prepared to listen to any propositions for the purchase of Cuba, and as it is understood that her difficulties with Mexico are in a fair way to be amicably adjusted, there will probably be no occasion for such interference as Mr. SLIDELL contemplates.

THE VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY IN THE CASE OF YOUNG SAMUEL.—The Coroner's inquest in the case of young SAMUEL, of Brooklyn, after sitting nearly a week, rendered their verdict yesterday, and were dismissed. No evidence whatever was furnished to afford a clue to the perpetrator of the murder, or to throw any light on the motive for the deed, and the verdict was in accordance. Nothing has transpired to change the opinion we expressed a week ago, that the murder was committed on the night of the 27th of March, while the victim was going from the house at which he had been visiting, in Tillary street, to the residence of his father, in Adams-street. The Coroner's Jury recommend that the Governor of the State should offer a reward for the detection of the murderer; it was very obviously the duty of the Mayor of Brooklyn to do this when the murder was first discovered. More than a fortnight has elapsed since the deed was committed, and the murderer has had ample opportunity to place himself beyond the reach of detection. Coroner CONNERY, in dismissing the Jury, made his customary speech, and suggested that a meeting of citizens, in New-York and Brooklyn, should be called to recommend an increase of the police force. There is a story about a celebrated singer, who, being called upon to sing his favorite song, hesitated and said that he had sung it so often he had forgotten the words. But this does not appear to be the case with Coroner CONNERY. He repeats his speech just as fluently as though he had never spoken it before.

The Opening of the Academy of Design—The Fine Arts in the City.

The year 1857–8, which will hardly be chronicled in letters of gold upon the commercial and political annals of our country, must certainly be marked "with a white stone" on the records of Art and Religion. The advent of the British and French galleries, dispatched to us from Europe as the heralds of an annual "meeting of minds" between the artists of the Old World and the amateurs of the New, awakened a sudden, but by no means transient, freshness of interest in the fine arts among all classes in the community, and will, we hope, be long commemorated in this country, like the Manchester Exhibition in England, by the rise of new and original artists, dating their first impulses back to the period when, for the first time, the "great average public" was brought face to face with fitting standards of high and various excellence in art. Foreign travel has always afforded to our artists themselves the opportunity of thus educating their own taste and measuring their own capacity. But domestic galleries, also accessible to all the world, were needed to bring up and sustain the public taste. For an atmosphere of judicious appreciation is just as essential to the artist in colors as to the artist in sound; and the Italian maxim that "the theatre makes the singer" is perfectly applicable, mutatis mutandis, to the painter. The aspiring youth who hurries home from Paris or Rome brimfull of ideas and enthusiasm, and expecting that his "better best" will be always expected of him, must be very much more than a common man if the discovery that nobody knows or cares for the difference between his hastiest pochade or his cleverest design, does not very soon tame his flights, and reduce him to the level of a money-seeking mediocrity.

Not only the amateurs, therefore, but the artists also of this country, owe a great debt to the originators of the scheme which was measurably carried out during the past season, but of which Mr. GAMBART of London now promises a complete development to come. Nor are their obligations less weighty towards those citizens of New-York who followed up the foreign exhibitions with the public display of valuable pictures belonging to themselves, the witnesses of their liberal taste and the ornaments of their honorable success in life. Mr. BELMONT'S collection was a radiant circle of light and pleasure, of which everybody will long regret the inevitable eclipse, but of which the wholesome influence will long continue to be felt. This is true also of the Murillos of Mr. ASPINWALL and of the Brevoort family; the latter of which has by no means attracted all the attention deserved by its long-established reputation among connoisseurs—native and foreign—by the homely and pathetic grace of the composition, and by the exquisite skill which it displayed in design and manipulation—a skill of which not even the furious "restorations" it has visibly undergone can disguise or impair the value.

The result upon the public feeling for art of all these appeals to the love of the beautiful among us, has been quietly appearing during the Winter in the increased attention bestowed upon our artists and their doings. They have received a new homage, particularly from the lovely representatives of that devoti fœminei sexus in whom St. CHARLES BORROMEO declared that the pope of the churches was lodged, and and who always outstrip the coarser and slower instincts of mankind in their recognition of all that can ennoble or refine the race. We beg to be understood as saying here precisely what we mean, and not as the victims of any intimidation brought to bear upon us by the Hon. Mr. BRADY, Miss LUCY STONE, or others, the eloquent advocates of "Woman's Rights" now enlightening the dull world at the Hope Chapel. The artists obeyed a very wise and proper impulse when they put themselves by their "Receptions" under the protection of the ladies. Those who best deserve that protection, will, in the end, most surely receive it; and if, in the beginning, the Pre-Raphaelites succeed in "leading captive silly women," as their kinsmen, the Puseyite Charles Honeymans, have so often the women of sense and sensibility, who so largely predominate in their sex, will sooner or later crown the true faith with victory.

It will be not less curious than instructive to witness how far these diverse tendencies have already developed themselves in the behavior of the brilliant audiences which are destined, as we cannot doubt, to crowd the rooms of the Academy of Design which are opened, with the most interesting collection ever yet exhibited by that body, to the public to-day. The usual private view of yesterday and last night can hardly be taken as more than a criterion of the attention yet to be bestowed upon this exhibition. For the day was most unpropitious to the pictures in its cloud and gloom, and the evening was divided with MUSARD, whose cannon, cattle-show, railway trains, gongs, trumpets and ophicleides, the "beauty and fashion" could not be expected to resist. Nor can anything be fairly said of pictures seen by the false and detestable glare of gas-light in the midst of a vast crash of crinoline and whirl of rustling robes. The man who can retain his reasoning faculties in a "rout," "jam," or "reception," must be fit for "treasons, stratagems and spoils." Moreover, the Committee of the Academy can hardly expect their "private view" to be considered as a private view for the purposes of criticism. They do not prepare their catalogues in time for distribution to their guests; and this must be taken as a hint, we suppose, that the fifteen hundred invited are merely expected to enjoy themselves in the promiscuous and incomprehensible manner peculiar to that marvelous institution, the "fashionable party"—to chat about the pictures and their painters, and to tell all the world that nothing can be more agreeable, or worthy of attention than the Academy Exhibition. This information we therefore now beg leave to communicate, in the strictest confidence, to the innumerable myriads of our readers, urban and suburban, throughout the Union and the State of New-Jersey.

DEATH OF GENERAL THOMAS.—We regret to receive, by private letters from Paris, news of the death of Gen. J. ADDISON THOMAS, of this City. He died at his residence, No. 26 Champs Elysées, Paris, on the evening of March 21, of typhoid fever, after an illness of several weeks. General THOMAS graduated at West Point in 1834, and after serving in the army was appointed commandant of a corps of Cadets at that place. He afterwards left the army and entered upon the practice of law in this City. He was appointed one of the Commissioners to adjust claims between American citizens and the English Government under President PIERCE, and afterwards became Assistant Secretary of State under Gov. MARCY. He went abroad less than a year ago with his family, and has resided in Paris. About a week before his death his health had so much improved that he made a journey to Havre, and was supposed to be rapidly recovering. But a relapse prostrated him, and he died after a renewed illness of only two or three days.

A BAD SIGN.—The Pennsylvanian is very unhappy over our statement, which was made on the authority of a correspondent, that efforts were making to purchase the Collins steamers at Newark. We infer from its touchiness that the report, to which we had attached no credit or importance, may be well-founded, and that the attempt may interfere with the Philadelphia project. We should regret any such premature defeat of the enterprise of our Quaker sister.

A PROPHET IN HIS OWN COUNTRY.—The Evening Post of yesterday entertains its readers with Mr. HAWTHORNE'S excellent story of "The Unpardonable Sin," which, certainly, well deserves to be not a twice, but even a thrice-told tale, and, with something more of politeness than of patriotism, credits the romantic narrative to the London Illustrated News. If the Post was indebted to our London cotemporary for its first acquaintance with this work of our distinguished countryman, the courtesy of this acknowledgment is enhanced by its candor, and we sincerely trust that the Post, having entered on the right path, will never more depart therefrom, but meet its obligations to Cis-Atlantic journals also quite as handsomely in all time to come.

LAST REQUEST OF BENTON.—When the dying veteran was within a few hours of his end, he addressed a letter to Gen. HOUSTON and the Hon. GEO. W. JONES, requesting that Congress would take no notice of his impending death. The request was characteristic, both for its modesty and its egotism; but is chiefly interesting as showing how the last thoughts of his active and stormy spirit instinctively turned to the associates of his youth. It was as "old Tennessee friends" that he addressed them. They were the companions of his opening manhood, and they were with his thoughts when his sun went down.

THE ADJOURNMENT.—The Albany Atlas and Argus of yesterday says, that although the hundred days to which the session of the Legislature is practically restricted, by the constitutional limitation of the compensation to that term, will expire to-morrow, it is probable the two Houses will give to the State the benefit of their services for two days beyond that time, if not to the end of the present week. There is a large mass of unfinished business, some of it of great importance, and it would seem impossible to dispose of the latter as early as to-morrow evening.

☞ The Herald is very anxious that President BUCHANAN should steal the Douglas thunder and make a new start in the enterprise of localizing the Kansas agitation. The President, we must say, does not consider his condition sufficiently desperate to warrant this hazardous attempt at political larceny.

The Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum Ball at the Crystal Palace.

The inclement weather of last night prevented so large a gathering as was anticipated at the Crystal Palace, on the occasion of the first annual festival of the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum. But notwithstanding the weather, and notwithstanding also that the Hunter-Woods Ball took place only last Thursday, with its immense crowd, and its very bad management, the Palace last night presented a brilliant assemblage. It was nearly 11 o'clock before the dancing commenced, but it began in good earnest then, and was kept up with spirit and with the utmost decorum, till a late, or rather an early hour in the morning. The Crystal Palace is a very large building, and three thousand people seem almost lost there, but there were full that number present, and among them were some of the handsomest and best-dressed ladies in the City. Miss TERESA ESMOND delivered a poem, written by Mr. CANNON, in commemoration of the fête, which was received by the audience with deserved approbation. The arrangements for the festival were perfect; nobody lost any wearing apparel, and no mismanagement was complained of.

THE LITTLES MURDER TRIAL AT ROCHESTER.—The telegraph announces that the above trial commenced yesterday. IRA STOUT and his sister, Mrs. SARAH LITTLES, are arraigned for the murder of CHARLES W. LITTLES, the woman's husband. Public opinion in Rochester is settled in the belief of their guilt. LITTLES was a lawyer, a dissolute young man, who had separated from his wife, but who continued to annoy her with his visits. His dead body was found, one morning last Fall, in the Genesee River, at the foot of a high, precipitous bank, with marks of violence upon it. Suspicion was at once directed to his wife and her brother, who were found at their mother's house, where they resided, with bruises and broken bones, as if from a deadly struggle. It is, however, supposed that these injuries were not inflicted by their victim, but by falling with him some twenty-five feet down the ledge, over which they were hurling his body to the river. The Stout family are disreputable; the father, who was absent at the time of the murder, and IRA, who is on trial, having both served a term together in States Prison. The case excites much attention at Rochester.

City Items.

In the Court of General Sessions yesterday, before Recorder BARNARD, HENRY MEYER pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny, and was sentenced to two years in the State Prison. JAMES JOHNSTON, an old offender, pardoned out of the State Prison by Governor CLARK, pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny, and was sentenced to four years in the State Prison, the Recorder observing that he did not deserve any leniency. FREDERIC AGNER pleaded guilty to the same offence, and was sentenced to two years in the State Prison. JAMES LESLIE pleaded guilty to an attempt to commit highway robbery, and was sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary. MARGARET GILLET and JOHN HAGGERTY, for an attempt at robbery, were sent to the Penitentiary for thirty days. A man named COULTER was tried for an assault on a man named PORTER, but the Jury were unable to agree. JOHN MCCARTHY was convicted of stealing a chest of tea from Mr. CLARKE, a grocer, and was sent to the State Prison for three years and six months. The Recorder remarked that MCCARTHY was a well-known dock thief, and expressed his intention to rid the City of such characters. JACOB HOLDEN, convicted of petit larceny, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for six months. JOHN MURPHY pleaded guilty to an attempt to commit arson in the fourth degree, and was sent to the Penitentiary for three months. A boy, aged 15, named CHARLES BRUNER, was charged with an assault on another boy, named JOHN GRAW. The cause of the difficulty was—a young girl. It was a little lovers' quarrel. The boy BRUNER was jealous of the boy GRAW, and pointed a pistol at him. A fight ensued, in which one of the boys—it did not clearly appear which—lost four teeth. The Jury acquitted BRUNER, and the Recorder, after remarking that the case ought to have been disposed of in the Special Sessions, advised the boy BRUNER to defer all further courting for eight or nine years, and never to carry a pistol for any purpose whatever.

The rooms of the Charity Fête Committee, at the corner of Broadway and Prince street, are not yet relieved of the miscellaneous heaps of apparel brought down from the Palace. Despite the storm yesterday, large numbers of ladies appeared as claimants of lost goods. A large platform in the centre of the upper room presents a great array of shawls, still unclaimed. The walls of the apartment are lined with ladies' cloaks—silk, broadcloth and plush. India-rubber shoes of all sizes await their owners. Rigolettes, to the number of dozens, find no heads to receive them. Several gentlemen appear to have been bereft of respectable overcoats. The Committee are extremely polite to callers, and cheerfully exert themselves to repair damages. A set of shelves has been filled with packages ready to be sent away; the goods contained therein having been identified by written descriptions. But, although yesterday was the third day since the great disaster to wardrobes, much remains to be done. It appears that only about one-eighth of all the articles left in the Palace had numbered tickets upon them—the checks having totally disappeared in the confusion. In cases of irrevocable loss, the Committee will compensate the owners; but it was lugubriously observed yesterday, by a sad committeeman, that "the surest way to enhance the value of an article is to lose it at a ball."

The Republican General Committee met, for the first time, last evening, at their new rooms No. 618 Broadway, formerly the American head-quarters. The rooms are 90 feet deep by 28 wide, and so arranged as to be divided for the use of Committees; the whole together will accommodate about 1,000 persons, and are fitted up with every accessory of convenience and comfort. In future campaigns this will be the Republican head-quarters in the City. The regular meetings are on the second Wednesday of each month. Last evening there was none but private business transacted.

Yesterday was the Anniversary of the Birthday of HENRY CLAY. The event was duly commemorated. The City Hall, most of the hotels, many of the public buildings, and a number of vessels in the harbor, displayed their flags at topmast. Several societies, associated to perpetuate the name and uphold the principles of "Kentucky's noblest son," celebrated the day with becoming festivities.

Academy of Music—The Musard Concerts.—The advent of MUSARD has been surrounded by so many extraneous circumstances by the "little Napoleon" of the Opera-house that it is difficult to make a beginning in noticing the event. Whether we ought to begin with the handsome and distinguished maestro, or the orchestra of one hundred and twenty professors, or the fascinating ladies "of prepossessing appearance" in the refreshment saloons, or the twenty "culled pussons" in livery, or the young gentlemen in uniform who dispense the evening papers, or the hundred sofas so luxuriously disposed in the corridors—these are the grave questions which perplex and plunge us into doubt. So much has been done by the management to insure the success of these concerts that we are truly embarrassed by the wealth of our opportunity, and know not where to begin.

The rites of hospitality are paramount, and we therefore turn to the stranger MUSARD with glad words of welcome. His reception last night was kindly and appreciative. Abundant applause was showered on his efforts; numerous encores were demanded and responded to, and in a decent and proper way everything was done to flatter and gratify the new lion. If he will but roar conscientiously, his position is safe for a season—no man's position is safe for a longer period in this City.

MUSARD belongs to a school of music which has been absolutely without interpreters in this City. We have had conductors of every sort; men willing to undertake anything, from BALFE'S "Bohemian Girl" to BEETHOVEN'S Ninth Symphony, but we have never had a man who claimed the dance as a specialty, and who was confessedly not great in anything save the dance. JULLIEN was the nearest approach, but he was ambitious, and in a few months drifted from the "Prima Donna Waltz" to the "Messiah." Moreover his dance music was dance music to listen to, not to dance to. Wonderful as were his Quadrilles in the Concert room, they were still more wonderful in the ballroom, simply because they were out of place there—too copious, luxuriant, capricious and imaginative for the matter-of-fact realms of Terpsichore. It must not be supposed that we are saying an ill word for JULLIEN. Far from it; we look on that chef as a distinct and all-powerful institution of the Nineteenth Century; a man of vast and extraordinary tact, and of unquestionable genius. But he was not a representative man like MUSARD, nor did he aim to be.

The Quadrille is a dance which goes up and down like Wall-street stock. It bores and it pleases, according to the fashion of the day, but never changes its character. It has withstood the terrible onslaughts of the valse à deux temps, the schottische, the polka, the varsovienne, and even the coarse barricade battery of "Pop goes the Weasel" has been ineffectual against its well-regulated movements. There must be a reason for such Crimean strength, and we find it in the fact that MUSARD, father and son, have been the Tottelbens of the defence. They have thrown out new works of such strength that the enemy has gained no permanent advantage. Hence it happens that the Quadrille is still the most fashionable dance of the day.

The MUSARD we have with us is the head and acknowledged MUSARD of the modern Quadrille. Those who listen to his music will understand the justice of his election; nothing can be more gay, crisp and compulsory. There is no effort and no restraint; every note goes direct to the legs, and thence to the soles of your most admirable boots. As a conductor, MUSARD is free from that emotional earnestness which so often seduced JULLIEN from the narrow path of rhythm. He is a master of orchestral light and shade, and can subdue or excite his hundred and twenty performers as easily as the pianist can press the pedal of his instrument. A Quadrille or a Galop, as played by MUSARD'S band, is a new sensation; and this band is something to be remembered. It is not a mixture of decrepid pensioners and good players like the Philharmonic, but a selection of the very best performers in America, reinforced by some admirable solo players brought by M. MUSARD from France. We have had good orchestras before, but nothing in point of general strength to compare with this. Mr. ULLMAN must give us some classical music—not old works, but the latest and fullest. Here is the orchestra to interpret them. The programme, too, will be benefited by an infusion of the classic element.

The programme last night opened with ROSSINI'S overture to "William Tell," which was played well, and narrowly escaped an encore. The magnificence of the Allegro, when played by such a body of violins, is tremendous. The second item was the "Cent Suisse Quadrille," written by the elder MUSARD, a popular and well-known set. The third item was a solo by Mme. D'ANGRI, who was dressed with consummate taste, and sung admirably. Item four, the "Express Railroad Galop." GUNG'L was, we believe, the first to convey the music of the locomotive-engine to the concert-room. This Galop is better than GUNG'L'S; the melody more distinct; the throbbing accompaniment, whistle, &c., more real, and thoroughly American. It was admirably played, and produced an instant encore, but a set of Quadrilles ("The Lancers") was played instead. The reason was philosophical, and may be briefly stated. The imitations of the steam-whistle are produced by a machine containing compressed air, and when this "gives out" there is no more Galop until several athletes have applied themselves to the pumps. Item five, "Polka Rondo for Cornet Obligato" played by M. LEGENDRE, the composer. M. LEGENDRE is the only performer who in tone approaches and in sentiment surpasses the late HERR KOENIG; his execution is not quite so firm. The Polka was encored, and M. LEGENDRE made a decided hit. Item six, "Grand Military Quadrille Les Zouaves, or the attack on the Malakoff." This is one of MUSARD'S most vigorous compositions. The fifth movement introduces a mimic assault on the Malakoff, and describes musically the fury and triumph of that great achievement. Guns, rockets, musketry and all sorts of warlike contrivances contribute to the effect, and a picture which cannot be mistaken is the result.

The Gong;—we must not forget the Gong. This charming instrument from the Flowery Empire, gives the signal for commencing the second part. The idea is a good one, but we object to the manner in which it is carried out. There are two ways of performing on the Gong, one as in "Norma," to invoke the chaste Fates; the other, as on a steamboat, to warn the passengers to step up to the captain's office and settle. The latter is the method adopted at the Academy. It is bad. Let us be classical, or perish. Item one, second part, overture to "Fra Diavolo," very well played. Item two, "Ocean Breeze Waltz," by STRAUSS, a delicious composition crowded with good orchestral figures and fine melodic ideas. Item three, Fantasia for the piano, played perfectly by Mr. THALBERG, and encored. Item four, a comic Quadrille called "The Cattle Show" by MUSARD. Here we have some exceedingly ludicrous imitations of the Beef and Mutton members of society, mingled with the liveliest music. Item five, MALIBRAN'S "Rataplan," sung faultlessly by Mme. D'ANGRI. Item six, Variations on the Ophicleide, played by M. MOREAU, a great artist, who plays on this grand instrument in a truly wonderful way. Item seven and last, Military Polka, by MUSARD, a piece which is intended to play out the audience, but has an opposite effect.

The Academy was well filled, in spite of the storm, and the first concert was an unequivocal, undoubted, unquestionable success. A few words about the house and we have done. The corridors and alleys have been carpeted, and a number of comfortable lounges are placed in convenient nooks for the indolent. Well ordered refreshment rooms are in operation for those who choose to frequent them, and attendants are provided for those who do not, but need refreshment in the house. The orchestra is built on the stage and is encompassed by a new scene prepared for the occasion—one of the finest specimens of architectural art we have ever seen. In short everything that good taste and lavish expenditure could command has been attained by Mr. ULLMAN. Nothing of their kind can be better than these concerts, and what can be cheaper than MUSARD with a superb orchestra of one hundred and twenty performers, and Madame D'ANGRI and Mr. THALBERG, all for fifty cents? We left the Academy with a sensation of complete enjoyment, and we are sure that every one else did the same.

DEATH OF THE HON. THOMAS R. WHITNEY.—Died, yesterday morning, at his residence No. 190 East Broadway, in this City, Mr. THOMAS R. WHITNEY, after an illness of considerable length which left no hope of his recovery. The deceased was known as a prominent politician of the American Party. He was a member of the State Senate during the sessions of 1854 and 1855. In November, 1854, while a Senator, he was elected to the Thirty-Fifth Congress from the Fifth Congressional District, in which body he was an assiduous and active member. Mr. W.'s age was not far from 55.

NEW-YORK LEGISLATURE.

SENATE....ALBANY, Monday, April 12.

The Senate was engaged all the morning in the passage of bills.

The bill relative to Wharves and Slips in the City of New-York, which may be leased to steamboat Companies, was passed, as was the bill relative to the classification, &c., of the New-York Supervisors.

The Public Printing bill was laid over, and the bill to incorporate the Central American Commercial and Industrial Company received similar action.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Mr. SPINOLA, by unanimous consent, introduced a bill to provide for the suppression of masquerades in New-York and Brooklyn, by making it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $2,500 to $5 000, or imprisonment for six months to two years, or both.

The rules were suspended, and the bill referred to be reported complete.

The bill to repeal the act for the appointment of Commissioners of Record in the City and County of New-York was ordered to a third reading.

The bill to regulate the burial and protect the repose of the dead having been considered in Committee of the Whole, Mr. WADSWORTH moved to order the bill to a third reading

Pending the question, the Senate adjourned to 7½ P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. WADSWORTH's motion coming up, Mr. NOXON moved that the provisions of the bill do not apply to New-York or Brooklyn Lost by 9 to 13.

Mr. NOXON then moved to lay the resolution of Mr NOXON on the table. Lost by 12 to 13.

Mr. NOXON then moved that the provisions of the act which forbids the cutting of any street through a church-yard, without the consent of the owners of the graves, shall not apply to the Corporation of Trinity Church, New-York. Lost by 11 to 15.

After several other attempts to defeat Mr. WADSWORTH's motion, the bill was ordered to third reading.

The Grinding Committee moved forward a large number of bills, amongst others the Balance Dock bill, which was ordered to a third reading.

On motion of Mr. MANDEVILLE a resolution was adopted requesting the Judiciary Committee to prepare for the consideration of the Senate, at the next session, a bill providing for a Commission to form a Court of Claims, in order to relieve the Legislature of such business.

The Senate then considered bills on the general order.

ASSEMBLY....ALBANY, Monday, April, 12.

The Registry law came down as passed by the Senate.

Mr. WOOLFORD moved to refer it to be reported complete. Carried—39 to 32.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill to prevent a floating debt for canal purposes, and the entire morning was consumed in its discussion.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A large number of bills were moved forward by the Grinding Committee.

The bill to provide for the construction of the Brooklyn Broadway Railroad was reported complete.

A communication was received from the Regents informing the House of the death of the Hon. JOHN GREIG, one of their number

On motion of Mr. DURYEA, the House passed a concurrent resolution to fill the vacancy on Wednesday, at 12 M.

The remainder of the session was occupied in concurring in the Senate's amendments to a number of Assembly bills.

EVENING SESSION.

A resolution in regard to a reduction of the Canal Tolls came down from the Senate.

Mr. ADAMS moved to consider the resolution at once. Agreed to.

Mr. WALFORD moved to amend by reducing the toll on stoves and castings to two mills.

This was recommended by the Canal Board, but was stricken out by the Senate.

The amendment was carried.

Mr. WAGER then moved to lay the whole subject on the table for the present. Carried.

The House concurred in the Senate's amendment to the bill to remove obstructions in Cayuga Lake, restricting the outlay to $30,000.

Mr. CHANLER moved for a reconsideration of the vote of Saturday, passing the New York Annual Tax Bill. He did so, because the bill had been hurriedly passed, and was very loosely drawn for a measure taxing the people to the amount of a million and a half.

Mr. SEELEY strongly opposed the motion to reconsider. The money was needed at once, and all the appropriations in the bill were for money honestly earned by hard work.

Mr. T. JONES, Jr., advocated a reconsideration. He was not willing to trust the bill in its present shape to the Senate. Some $150,000 was appropriated in the bill that was not asked for by the New-York Supervisors.

Mr. ENOS and Mr. WINNE also advocated a reconsideration.

Mr. WINNE said the amount particularly objected to by the representatives of New York, was only the sum appropriated to Mr CONOVER, Governor KING's appointee for Street Commissioner. If his colleagues from New-York were anxious to make a partisan measure of this, he could not go with them.

Mr. VAN VALKENBURGH raised the point of order, that the bill was now in possession of the Senate, and therefore that the motion to reconsider was out of order.

The Speaker decided the point of order well taken

Mr. CHANLER appealed from the decision, but eventually withdrew the appeal, and moved to send a respectful message to the Senate, requesting the return of the bill.

The motion was carried. So the bill will come back to the House for further action.

The bill to regulate the rates of wharfage in New-York was lost, and a motion to reconsider was also lost.

The bills were passed for the relief of the widow and child of Dr. ROSS, killed at the Utica Lunatic Asylum fire, and to incorporate the Pneumatic Power Company.

August Election in Missouri—Emancipation the Issue.

From the St. Louis Republican, April 9.

It is early in the season to be talking of a midsummer campaign, but circumstances have precipitated the contest upon us, and we feel no hesitation in giving our views of its character, at the same time that we invite the attention of the people of every County of the State to what we have to say.

We assume, then, without further prelude, that the election in August next. for members of Congress and of the State Legislature, and even county officers is to be fought upon the issue distinctly presented by the Black Republicans, which proposes a direct war upon the institution of Slavery in this State. This was the issue presented by them on Monday last, in the election in this city, and Jefferson City and Carondelet, in the two former of which they were successful. This was the issue boldly presented by one of the apostles of Emancipation (Mr. STEVENSON) in Franklin County, in a set speech in reply to General NOBLE, the Democratic nominee for Congress from Mr. CARUTHERS' District, and in which he declared that, in due time, one of the party, an Emancipationist, would be in the field against him. This is the feeling in other parts of the State—as in the Southwestern Congressional District, where a union has been agreed upon to break down Major PHELPS, without the coalitionists having been able to decide which shall run the race—Colonel J. M. RICHARDSON, formerly Secretary of State, or General RAINS, who served in the last Legislature as an American Senator from this District, but whose political antecedents, prior to that time, were of a questionable character. This will be the issue in ANDERSON's and WOODSON's Districts, and men may as well look it right in the eye, for they will have it to do. The Black Republicans have forced this question of Slave Emancipation upon us, and we cannot avoid it if we would, nor is it prudent to do it if we could.

This is to be the issue, not only here but all over the State, and on this question there can be—there will be—but two parties: the Democratic Party, and those members of other parties who believe that such a war upon one of the great interests of the State would be productive of most injurious consequences; and the Black Republican Party, the members of which, for no other purpose than to secure offices for themselves, would push this question into every county and neighborhood, regardless of its effect upon fifty millions of dollars worth of property. To this complexion it must come, and although spasmodic efforts are making to form a new American party, here and elsewhere in the State, with a view to aid the Black Republicans in this struggle in favor of Emancipation, we have too much confidence in the patriotism of the masses of that party, as heretofore organized, to believe that they will lend themselves to any such purpose. They will not do it in the "Rural Districts," where they have always presented the strongest front, and where they are, as a general thing, the largest slaveholders, nor will they do it here, where it is understood that they are to be the bob to the kite of the Black Republican Party—assisting thereby in prolonging the agitation of a question which has done so much mischief all over the country, and which will be productive of still greater evils in Missouri, should the question not be put down forever in August next.

We ask the Black Republican Party, and those few members of the American Party, who propose to join in this crusade for the abolition of Slavery in Missouri, how they propose to accomplish it? Where is the money to come from to pay for this property? Is it to be obtained by direct taxation, or by the issue of State Bonds? Or, is it expected that the continual agitation of the people on this question will tire them out, and compel them to send their slaves to the South? Or, do they think that the agitation of the subject will induce the slaves to run off, and thus, in process of time, relieve us from the institution of Slavery? It is hardly possible that either of these modes will be adopted, and hence it becomes, under the Constitution, of vital importance to know what they propose to do? Is a tax, running through a series of years, to be levied to the extent of fifty millions of dollars? Or, are bonds of the State to be issued to a like amount, the interest for which is to be collected every year, amounting to at least three millions of dollars? If they know or care anything about the Constitution, they must know that compensation must be provided for all the slaves in the State before any such act can be passed; and this is the question which is first to be considered and settled by the people of Missouri. It is forced upon them by the Emancipationists, and must be determined next August. It must be determined then, for, if any such act is to be passed, emigrants, who have a wish to settle in this State, will wait to see whether $3,000,000 of taxes are to be added to its present burdens, and whether they can afford to pay their share of this sum for the privilege of living in Missouri.

We give the people, far and near, full warning that this is to be the absorbing question next August. It cannot be confined to particular localities, and thus secure success for their partisans; but it must be met in every county of the State, for every county is interested in it, and put down. Wherever the Democratic Party can make its voice heard and felt, and wherever an Old Line Whig or a true American, opposed to the agitation of this Emancipation scheme—this scheme of delusion and madness—this scheme to heap millions upon millions of taxes upon the people—wherever this incendiary attempt is made to elect its advocates, either to Congress or the Legislature, we trust that it will be met and rebuked at the poll, and that every man of them will be discarded from the confidence of the people.

The Atlantic Telegraph.

STOWING THE CABLE ON BOARD THE AGAMEMNON

From the London Times, March 26.

The operation of stowing the wire for a second effort commenced on Friday last, 19th, on board her Majesty's ship Agamemnon, in Keyham basin. An extra place for deposit has been constructed on her upper deck, abaft the foremast, capable of taking 2 1-5th miles each flake or layer. Here about 140 miles were deposited up to yesterday, Thursday evening, at an average of 27 miles a day. It will contain together 260 miles, which forms the first portion to be laid. The place of deposit last year, in the hold, made the coil oval in one direction, close to the kelson, and oval in the opposite direction above. A different arrangement prevails now; two additional bulkheads have been knocked away, and the hold presents the appearance of a basin perfectly circular in every part. The cone in the centre is 12 feet 3 inches high, and has a diameter of 10 feet at the base and 5 at the top, it will be encircled by 1,050 miles of cable. The remaining 150 miles are to be coiled on the orlop deck, where the heavy shore end was placed last year. A new guard has been fitted for the Agamemnon's stern, to prevent the cable from fouling the propeller. The cage previously used was weakened by its proximity to the copper on the ship's bottom, which served as a negative to the iron. The galvanic action of salt water on it during the last eight months has rendered it desirable to provide a new one, which will not touch the surface until the load line is reached. On board the Niagara the boats forward on the upper deck are to be removed, and a space prepared of 33 feet diameter, equal to the reception of from 170 to 180 miles of cable. For the approaching trial the Atlantic Telegraph Company appear to have made very complete arrangements through their Engineer-in-Chief, Mr. BRIGHT, who has been some days at Plymouth. The coiling on board the Agamemnon is superintended by Mr. CANNING, who assisted in the operations last year, and who laid the cable across the Gulf of St. Lawrence from Newfoundland to Cape Breton. Mr. WHITEHOUSE, who completed the line from Varna to Balaklava, and was charged with the first shipment and fittings on board the Niagara, takes the same duty now, with the aid of Captain KELL, who was engaged in laying the early Mediterranean lines. Mr. EVERETT, of the Niagara, accompanied by Mr. CLIFFORD, one of the Company's Assistant Engineers on the former occasion, has been intrusted with the supervision of the experiments carried on at the works of Messrs. EASTON & AMOS, under the advice of Messrs. PENN, FIELD and LLOYD, whom the Company have consulted upon the modifications to be made in the paying-out machinery, and with the concurrence of Mr. BRIGHT, their Engineer, and Mr. APPOLD, who invented, for a different purpose, the form of brake to be used. The staff of telegraphic clerks engaged last year has been retained, and some of them under the guidance of Mr. WHITEHOUSE, the electrician, are perfecting themselves in their future employment by transmitting and receiving, through the 2,630 miles of wire now at Plymouth, the class of messages anticipated on the closer junction of England with the United States and the continent of America.

THE NIAGARA'S ARRIVAL AT PLYMOUTH.

From the London News.

This splendid vessel returned to Plymouth on Monday evening from the United States, and anchored in the Sound on Tuesday morning. She left New-York on the 9th inst., and has experienced very heavy southerly gales during her passage across the Atlantic. On several occasions the vessel logged over 300 miles in 24 hours. Both steam and sail were used on the voyage, and the vessel made some excellent runs. Her arrival was delayed, however, from the quality of the coal used being unsuitable to the furnaces, clogging the flues, and rendering frequent stoppages necessary in order to clean them. Since the Niagara last left Plymouth no alterations have been made in her internal arrangements for the reception and stowage of the electric cable.

Mr. Allsopp's Offer to Stand His Trial.

From the Birmingham Daily Press.

We have been informed, on good authority, that Mr. ALLSOPP has offered to surrender himself for trial if the Government will guarantee his expenses. The part taken by this gentleman in the recent Parisian tragedy has been entirely misconstrued by the public. He ordered the grenades of Mr. TAYLOR under the impression that they were to be used in legitimate warfare, or in so near an approach to it as an insurrectionary struggle might be considered. Mr. ALLSOPP's impression was that the grenades were for the service of the national party in Italy. He had no idea that assassination was contemplated by his colleagues, or that the Emperor of France was the person against whom their measures were directed. So confident is he of being able to establish his innocence of the charge under which Dr. BERNARD is awaiting trial, that the above-mentioned offer has been made with the condition stated. Mr. ALLSOPP is not in a position to encounter the expenses of a State trial, in which he could not recover costs if the suit went in his favor. When we hear that £20,000 has been spent by one side only on the British Bank trial, we can form an idea of what a man has to encounter in the way of costs when he enters into a legal conflict with the Government. As Mr. ALLSOPP is at present in a place of safety, he is not likely to rush voluntarily into so ruinous an engagement. But we believe he is quite ready to surrender and take his trial, if he can be insured against pecuniary injury in case he satisfies the country of his innocence. We shall see whether the offer is accepted.

REPORTED ARREST OF ALLSOPP.

From the Boyle Gazette.

A man, supposed to be ALLSOPP, who stands charged with having been one of the conspirators to assassinate the Emperor of the French, was arrested at Keadue, on Thursday last, by Mr. WILLIAM FRAZER, architect, of that place. The person so charged was handed over to the police, who at once brought him before E. K. TENISON, Esq., Lord Lieutenant of the county, and J. B. LITTLE, J. P., and we have heard on examination, the prisoner not having satisfactorily accounted for himself, was remanded to the care of the police for further inquiry. The man appears to have been in some respectable position; his person corresponds exactly with the description given of ALLSOPP.

Police Intelligence.

SEDUCTION AND ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—As one of the Ninth Ward Police was patrolling his beat at an early hour yesterday morning, a woman suddenly jumped from the wharf into the river. The officer at once rushed to her aid and succeeded in effecting her rescue. The rescued female proved to be a young German girl. She gave her name as Catharine Schmidt, and stated that she recently arrived from Germany. On the passage, she was seduced by a fellow-passenger named Simeo Schorne, he promising to marry her as soon as they arrived in New-York. Upon arriving here Schorne took her to a boarding-house in Water-street, but had refused to marry her. The girl was given in charge of the Interpreter at the Jefferson Market Police Court. She says that her seducer is now locked up on a charge of stealing a watch.

A DESPERATE BURGLAR IN LIMBO.—A few mornings ago officer Currey, of the Ninth Ward, detected two men coming out of the manufacturing establishment of Nathaniel Sawyer, No. 3 Bedford-street, which they had just broken into. He attempted to arrest the men, but they turned upon him, beat him severely, and then escaped. The officer recognized one of the culprits as James Cusick, a noted burglar, and since then has been on the look-out for him. Discovering yesterday that Cusick had been lodged in the Fifth Ward Station-house for disorderly conduct, he claimed him as a fugitive and took him before Justice QUACKENBUSH, who committed him for examination in default of $1,000 bail.

FEMALE STREET-THIEF.—A woman, giving her name as Agnes Dennison, was discovered yesterday morning in the dwelling-house of Mrs. Haskin, No. 97 East Twenty-ninth-street, having $70 worth of clothing in her possession, which she had just stolen. Mrs. Haskin, with the assistance of another woman, detained her till an officer was called. The woman had two accomplices waiting outside. Justice QUACKENBUSH locked her up for trial. She stated she was drunk and wandered into the house while in a state of unconsciousness.

DISHONEST SAILORS.—A number of sailors, comprising parts of the crews of the Young America, from Havana, and brig Koloa, from Cardenas, which arrived on Sunday, were arrested by the Harbor Police, charged with stealing sugar belonging to the cargoes of their respective vessels. A large quantity of sugar was found stored in their chests and hammocks. The sugar was given in charge of the Revenue Officers, and the accused locked up for examination.

GAMBLERS ARRESTED.—The Twenty-second Ward Police arrested, yesterday morning, four men whom they found gambling in Fifty first-street. On the way to the Station-house Michael and John O'Brien attempted to rescue the prisoners, and were themselves arrested. All the prisoners were committed by Justice KELLY. The gamblers gave their names as Henry Orville, Peter Duncan, Frederick Lahmore and Peter Halfa.

THE WILLIAM-STREET SHOOTING CASE.—Coroner Connery yesterday took the ante mortem examination of John McCarthy, the young man who was shot by Leroy Roscius in the basement of the dance-house No. 19 North William-street. His statement contained nothing additional to the facts heretofore published.

MUNICIPAL.

The Street Commissioner's Office.

The decision of the Court of Appeals, which reinstates DEVLIN as Street Commissioner, drew to the Park a crowd of persons who bear a striking resemblance to those who were seen in and about the City Hall during the disturbances in which Mayor WOOD acted so prominent a part. The excitement among them was somewhat increased yesterday when it became known that Mayor TIEMANN had determined upon removing DEVLIN, and would send a message to the Common Council with his reasons for that step. DEVLIN could nowhere be found, although diligent search was made for him. About noon yesterday, Mr. STILWELL, counsel for DEVLIN, called upon the Mayor and served upon him an order of the Supreme Court ousting CONOVER, and directing that the office be surrendered to DEVLIN. The Mayor, however, had a document also to serve on him, suspending DEVLIN, of which the following is a copy:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
NEW-YORK, April 12, 1858.

To Charles Devlin, Esq., Street Commissioner of the City of New-York:

SIR: Pursuant to the provisions of section 21, City Charter 1857, you are hereby suspended from the performance of any duties as Street Commissioner for the City of New-York.

I shall communicate the cause thereof to the Common Council at its next session, and advise your removal. DANIEL F. TIEMANN, Mayor.

STILWELL refused to receive the document, and left it on the desk. The Mayor then placed it in the hands of Sergeant CROFT, who has been in charge of the Hall of Records since the office was closed, with directions to serve it on DEVLIN when he came to the place.

Mr. DEVLIN, however, did not make his appearance. The Superintendent of Police sent a dozen or more policemen to guard the place, and prevent the seizure of any of the papers. The Mayor, meantime, has the keys in his keeping. Last evening he sent a communication to the Common Council, which is noted below.

The Board of Aldermen

THE STREET COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE—DISBANDING NO. 16.

The Board of Aldermen met last evening, President CLANCY in the chair. Several petitions were received asking the removal of Charles Devlin from the office of Street Commissioner. The Chairman stated the question, and the petitions were laid on the table.

The sum of $2,000 was appropriated for the Manual of D. T. Valentine. Several other petitions were received for the removal of Mr. Devlin from the office of Street Commissioner. The petitions were laid on the table.

A petition was received from Stephen H. Branch, asking to be received at the reporters' table as reporter for the Alligator. The petition was referred.

The following message was then received from the Mayor:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, New-York, April 12, 1858.

To the Hon. the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: I hereby remove Chas. Devlin from the office of Street Commissioner of the City of New York, and respectfully ask your consent thereto.

DANIEL F. TIEMANN.

Alderman STEPHENS moved that the further reading be dispensed with and that the communication be laid on the table.

Alderman MCSPEDON believed the communication ought to be laid on the table with the other papers on the same subject, so that Mr. Devlin might have an opportunity to reply to them.

Alderman STEPHENS thought the movement was without precedent. He considered Mr. Devlin as the great representative of the great Democratic Party; and he was in favor of affording him an opportunity to explain. The case was without parallel in the history of the City Government. He looked upon Mr. Devlin as the representative of the great Democratic Party. He had no personal feeling in the matter; he was not responsible for his election to the place. But he did stand as the defendant of the Democratic Party. The communication had resulted from party prejudice; and he believed there were in the Board men professing to belong to the People's party, who would remove Mr. Devlin for no other reason than that he belonged to the Democratic Party.

On motion of Alderman MCSPEDON the subject was referred to a Committee of five by a vote 12 to 4, as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Murray, Clancy, Hoffmire, Tucker, Toumey, Starr, Adams, Lines, Boole, Bradley, Owens and McSpedon.

NAYS—Messrs. Stephens, Read, Wilmot and Davis.

The following communication was then received from Mr. Charles Devlin, and referred:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

I have been informally notified that the Mayor designs asking your concurrence in removing me from the office of Street Commissioner.

It seems that my enemies are not satisfied with having deprived me of the enjoyment of that office since I received from the Mayor, and your Honorable Body, the appointment, in which I have suffered not only expense, but imprisonment for defending, and which I have procured to be unanimously sustained in the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. It is now sought to deprive me of the office under the pretence that I have been guilty of misconduct in my official capacity; and it has been even suggested that this may and should be done without allowing me to be heard in my defence.

I respectfully deny the authority of the Mayor, with or without your concurrence, to remove me from office, except for cause, and I claim to be heard before your Honorable Body, in answer to any charges which the Mayor may prefer against me, whatever their nature or the mode of their presentation.

And I also claim that the hearing should be had after due notice to me as to what the charges are, and that I be represented at such hearing by counsel.

CHARLES DEVLIN, Street Commissioner.

Dated NEW YORK, April 12, 1858.

Alderman BRADLEY offered a resolution, which was adopted, asking the opinion of the Corporation Counsel as to whether the Mayor and Aldermen had power to remove the Street Commissioner, with or without cause. The whole subject was finally referred to the following Special Committee: Aldermen McSpedon, Tuomey, Bradley, Lines and Owens.

There was a report from the Fire Department Committee against confirming the decision of the Fire Commissioners, disbanding Engine Company No. 16, on which there was a long debate. Alderman DAVIS, having the deciding vote, voted in favor of the report.

A communication was received from the Corporation Counsel in reference to a judgment against the City by Franklin Remsen and —— Wenman, for alleged infringement of patent rights. He proposed to carry the case up, and wanted security to the amount of $20,000. A resolution in conformity with the communication was adopted.

The Board then adjourned to Thursday next.

Board of Councilmen.

The Board met yesterday at 5 P. M., the President, CHARLES H. HASWELL, in the Chair.

A communication from the Veterans of 1812, asking the Board to make an appropriation to defray the expenses of twelve Indians, delegates from the Six Nations, who are to attend a Convention in this City, called for the purpose of furthering the pension bill now before Congress, was read.

Councilman VAN TINE offered a resolution appropriating $500 to this purpose. Laid over.

A resolution presented by Councilman DUNN, requesting the Eighth-avenue Railroad Company to inform the Board by what authority they have caused rails to be laid in Fiftieth-street, near Eighth-avenue, was adopted.

Councilman BRADY presented the following characteristic petition from Stephen H. Branch:

To the Honorable the Common Council.

GENTLEMEN: Your petitioner respectfully represents that, on next Saturday, he will publish a journal bearing the title of Stephen H. Branch's Alligator—that he desires to chronicle your proceedings, and if you will kindly permit him to occupy a chair with your reporters, he will conduct himself with propriety, and give you his Alligator. STEPHEN H. BRANCH.

The petition was granted.

A communication was received from the Scott Life Guard, inviting the Board to review the Corps on the 19th inst. The invitation was accepted.

The report of the Committee on Repairs and Supplies, in favor of concurring with the Board of Aldermen to rent rooms for the use of the Second District Court, at No. 514 Pearl-street, was laid over.

The report of the Committee on Lamps and Gas, in favor of placing six gas lights over the gates of Bellevue Hospital, was presented and laid over.

The report of the Committee on Police in favor of authorizing the Comptroller to lease the premises No. 1 State-street, as a Station-house for the River Police, was read and laid over.

A resolution appropriating $545 for defraying the expenses of extending the hospitalities of the City to Rear-Admiral Mahommed Pasha was lost.

After the transaction of considerable routine business, the Board adjourned.

Board of Central Park Commissioners.

The board met yesterday at 1 o'clock. The minutes being approved, it was Ordered, That the Board restrict the execution of their ordinances, until further action, to the upper and lower Park.

The Superintendent was authorized to proceed, at his discretion, with the filling up of some (40) wells reported by him as dangerous to foot passengers.

It was

Resolved, That until further action of this Board the Croton Aqueduct Board have the use and possession of the ground of the Park lying between the cross-walls of the upper and lower Parks.

It was also

Resolved, That the further purchase of trees for the Park be indefinitely postponed.

Dr. Cheever's Church

We have already mentioned the fact that a secret meeting of members of Dr. CHEEVER's Church was held a few evenings since to consider the application of a number of the members for letters of dismissal. The number of these applications was forty-eight; they were from persons who had signed the letter asking Dr. CHEEVER to resign, and others who sympathized with them—and there was considerable opposition to giving them letters in the usual form, on account of the course they had pursued.

We now learn that the Church, after long consultation, adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, Sundry members of this Church have asked letters of dismission and recommendation to other churches; and

Whereas, It is known that there are difficulties existing between said members of the Church, growing out of a letter addressed by some of them to our Pastor in April last, this Church, in according to the request of those brethren, deem it due to themselves to accompany their action by the the following

DECLARATION:

The matters at issue between them and the Church were fully considered in a published document adopted by the Church on the 5th of November, in which our views were presented at length.

Those views we have seen no reason to alter.

We had hoped that on careful reconsideration, our brethren would have seen their error, and have been ready to make such concessions as were due to us and would have been honorable to their own Christian magnanimity.

We regret that they have not done so,—that even in applying for their letters they have reaffirmed their former statements, and that too in a manner little calculated to soothe the feelings of their brethren.

It is our great grief that better counsels and a gentler spirit should not have prevailed.

Nevertheless, the Church are not disposed to make the wrongs received by them and their Pastor the rule of their conduct in return. So far as we have been injured, we can forgive, and if said action by our brethren involve more than an injury to us, we are willing to leave that to a legal tribunal. We refer both to their own consciences, and the review of the final day.

With this brief statement of our position and sentiments, and with earnest prayers that the blessing of God may rest both upon the Church and on our brethren who now leave us, it is hereby

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Church be directed to furnish said members a copy of the above declaration, together with the following certificate:

"This certifies that Mr. —— is a member of the Church of the Puritans in regular standing, and as such is at his own request dismissed, with the view to unite with the —— Church, under care of ——, and that when received by them, his connection with this Church will be dissolved."

This is not the usual form of certificate given to members asking letters of dismissal, as the ordinary recommendation is entirely omitted. There is some doubt, therefore, whether the applicants will accept them, since it is by no means certain that they would be received as members of other Churches upon them. The controversy, therefore, is not yet ended.

Note from Mr. Charles Kelsey.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Senator SPINOLA, without the slightest regard for truth, has thought proper to name me as one of the pet policemen, receiving pay and doing no duty but to further the political advancement of the Commissioners. I desire to say that I hold no political or public office whatever; that I have never held nor been offered any position in the gift of the Police Commissioners; that I have never yet asked or received one cent from any one as a reward for advancing their political interests. I hope the Honorable Senator can show as clean hands in this respect as myself; and I have no doubt after the Honorable Senator has accomplished his object, by getting his bosom friend, ANDREW B. HODGES, appointed Police Commissioner, he will rise in his place in the Senate and say that he was misinformed as regards me.

THE FIRST OF MAY.
The first of May approaches,
When bed bugs, fleas and roaches,
Their noxious columns muster,
The rat, too, then encroaches,
The mouse, sly plunderer, poaches,
Putting ladies in a fluster;
But thy magic powder, LYON,
Is the food that insects die on.
Mice and rats, too,
By the pills, which we rely on,
Are killed to the last scion,
Without cats, too.

We offer for sale 1,665 acres of land, by recent survey, located near the Eastern terminus of the Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal, and bounded by the river for about three miles. This land is heavily timbered and wooded with white and red oak, suitable for ship building and staves. Also, heart pine, suitable for house-building, &c. It is estimated by competent judges that from 60,000 to 100,000 cords of wood can be cut from this place, more than half of which is pine, and of the very best quality. The distance of hauling will not exceed an average of half a mile. Vessels can land at or near the banks of the river, and be within three hours of the city of Norfolk. The land is a mulatto soil, and lies on the north side of the river, with a gentle slope and southwardly exposure. After the removal of the wood the land will be admirably adapted to the early growth of potatoes, tomatoes, green peas, cucumbers, and all truck; also, corn, oats, wheat, &c. After the completion of the canal, steamers will be placed on this river for the purpose of bringing produce to Norfolk, which will take but two hours to run from one point to the other. For further particulars, inquire of MERWIN & MOORE, Norfolk, Va.

FOR SALE—A FINE FARM OF 86 34-100 ACRES, one mile from Rye Depôt, Westchester County, seven acres woodland, balance all tillable, well fenced and finely improved; large apple orchard, and a great variety of other fruits. PUBLIC NOTICES.

NEW-YORK STATE CANALS—NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.—REPAIRS OF CHAMPLAIN CANAL.—In pursuance of Act, Chapter 165, Laws of 1857, and of a Resolution of the Contracting Board, notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, at the Canal Commissioners' Office, in the city of Albany, until Tuesday, the 13th day of April next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for furnishing all the materials and performing all the work necessary or that may be required, to keep in good repair, and in good navigable condition, during such time in each year as the Canal Commissioners, or Commissioner in charge shall direct, for a period of five years from the 10th day of May next.

SECTION NO. 1 CHAMPLAIN CANAL.

Penalty in Bond.......$7,000

Together with all and each of the Side Cuts, Structures, Feeders and Reservoirs connected therewith.

Every proposal shall be accompanied by an affidavit indorsed thereon of each person uniting in such proposal, that he is not directly or indirectly interested in any other proposal for the same work or materials, or any part of the same; that he has no agreement or understanding with any other person to become interested in any other proposal or contract for the same work or materials, or any part thereof; and that no other person than such as shall be named in the proposal is interested in the same, or has any agreement or understanding to become interested in any contract that may be made in pursuance of such proposal.

Every proposal for the above-mentioned work or materials must be accompanied with a bond to the people of this State, in the penalty specified above, and which bond shall be signed by the party making such proposal, and two or more responsible sureties, with such evidence of their responsibility as the Contracting Board shall require, and which sureties shall justify in sums equal in the aggregate to twice the amount of such penalty.

Each proposal must be accompanied by the certificate of the Supervisor of the town, and the County Clerk, or the County Judge of the County in which said surety shall reside, or any two of them, as to the responsibility of said sureties.

The persons to whom the work may be awarded will be required by the contracting Board to give the bond for the payment of laborers' wages, as required by chapter 278, of the laws of 1850.

No acceptance of a proposal or award of a contract by the contracting Board, and no contract made by them, or any interest in the same, shall be assignable to any person or persons, without the written consent of the Canal Commissioners.

The Commissioners will reserve fifteen per cent. of the amount of each relative monthly estimate of work done and materials delivered, as a security to the State for the performance of the contract, and at the expiration of the third month of each year the fifteen per cent. thus retained during the previous year shall be paid to the contractor, providing the provisions of the contract shall have been fully complied with.

In case the contracting Board shall be of opinion that the proposals made at any meeting thereof, pursuant to any advertisement, are, in consequence of any combination or otherwise, excessive and disadvantageous to the State, they may decline all or any of the said proposals, and advertise anew for the work and materials embraced therein.

The person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to receive the boats, tools, and other implements specified in the following schedule, and allow therefor the respective prices therein stated, viz.:

THE TALENT OF THE MOST EMINENT EUROPEAN ARTISTS
Is employed in illustrating the new edition of that practical Medical Work,
HUMAN FRAILTY;
OR, PHYSIOLOGICAL RESEARCHES.
JUST ISSUED FROM THE PRESS.

It describes the causes and effects of all diseases of a delicate nature; it contains copious instructions for the perfect restoration of those who are prevented by impediments from entering into the married state, and for the permanent cure of all diseases arising from imprudences, with observations on the direful results of early abuse; also a professional dissertation, illustrating the results of chemical tests, and examination of the spermatozoa, by the patentee's newly-constructed microscope, with powerful lenses.

Price 25 cents. Sent free of postage to any part of the country.

This invaluable work may be obtained, as well as the Triesemar, from Dr. BARROW, No. 157 Prince-st., few blocks west of Broadway, New-York. To be consulted as usual, from 11 A. M. till 2 P. M., and from 4 till 8 in the evening.

DR. MAGNIN'S LUCINA CORDIAL, OR ELIXIR OF LOVE.—From the earliest ages stimulants have been resorted to as a means of reviving the energies of Nature. Of this fact, both sacred and profane history assure us. But the great difficulty has been to find an exhilarant which would produce the desired effect continuously, and entail no subsequent depression. This grand desideratum, sought for by every physician from the time of Galen to the present day, is accomplished at last! The LUCINA CORDIAL restores and permanently invigorates the broken-down system; nay, more, it replaces natural weakness with energy and strength. The desponding it revives, the feeble it endows with vigor; and the cheerfulness and strength which it restores or creates, it also preserves. To the sickly wife it imparts that degree of vital force necessary to the crowning joy and great object of matrimony. To the debilitated husband it gives the nervous and muscular energy which characterizes manhood. In all cases of nervous diseases, low spirits, indigestion, liver complaint, indisposition to mental exertion, lassitude, emaciation, impotence, &c.—in fact, in all complaints, acute and chronic, which depress and weigh down the mind and body, it is an absolute, infallible specific. Ladies of delicate constitution, subject to those derangements peculiar to the feeble of their sex, will obtain immediate relief from its use.

Persons wishing the Lucina Cordial, by sending a remittance to Dr. MAGNIN, No. 203 Fulton-st., New-York, or to E. FLINT, druggist corner of 9th-av., and [illegible]-st., can have it safely packed and sent to any part of the world. Price $3 per bottle, or two bottles for $5.

RICORD'S, VELPEAU'S, CIVIALE'S, ACTON'S CURLING'S, and the Venereal [illegible] Practice, of Paris and London, by Dr. LARMONT. As some persons afflicted with Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Primary and Constitutional Syphilis, Nervous Debility, Seminal Emissions, Impotency, &c., may not be aware of the fact, he takes this medium of informing them that he is the only graduate in this City who is exclusively treating and curing those diseases, and whose connection with the European hospitals enables him to adopt the latest and most radical treatment, curing the oldest and most severe cases, at No. 82 Mercer-st., corner of Spring, opposite St. Nicholas Hotel, from 11 A. M. till 2 P. M., except Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, till 8 P. M. only. The Doctor's MEDICAL ADVISER AND MARRIAGE GUIDE, nearly 400 pages, 100 pictorial illustrations, is $1. Sold and mailed also by TOWNSEND, No. 222 Broadway, New-York. It gives the advertised medicines. It should be seen by the afflicted, before adopting any treatment, as it fully exposes the charlatans infesting this and other cities.

DR. WATSON HAS FOR A LONG SERIES of years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated a vast number of cases, without an instance of failure. The remedies are mild, and there is no interruption to business or change of diet. Separate consulting rooms.

Dr. WATSON'S WORK, THE CAUSE AND CURE, is the only one which clearly explains the nature and mode of treatment of the venereal disease in its different forms: also Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, and Premature Exhaustion—the result of early indiscretion, excess, or other causes. Anatomical plates of a superior kind, and drawings of every form of disease. Price $1. No. 55 Walker-st., a few doors west of Broadway.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. HUNTER'S Red Drop cures when regular treatment of other physicians and all other remedies fail. It is your only reliance for a thorough cure in certain diseases. No. 3 Division-st., the only place now so well known for the very many extraordinary cures it has performed, without diet or hindrance from business, when all other remedies only drive the disease into the blood—$1 only. This secures the patient from secondary attacks, and is the only remedy on earth that does it.

RICORD'S PRACTICE.—C. D. HAMMOND, M. D., pupil of RICORD, of Paris, (who is the first living surgeon for diseases, &c., of the sexual system,) and of Professors CARNOCHAN and MOTT, of this City, may be consulted on this specialty, and on general practice, in English, French, and by letter. No. 61 Bleecker st., 8th house east of Broadway. Office hours from 9 to 1, and 5 to 8 evenings.

DR. RALPH, AUTHOR OF THE PRACTICAL PRIVATE TREATISE—The permanent cure of Stricture. Dr. R. cures more cases of Stricture than any surgeon in America. Office No. 784 Broadway; hours, 10 till 1, and after 6 o'clock.

NEW-YORK CITY.

THE MURDER OF YOUNG SAMUEL.

Coroner's Investigation Concluded—Verdict of the Jury—No Clue to the Murderers.

The Jury impanneled to inquire into the cause of the death of CHARLES L. SAMUEL, of Brooklyn, re-assembled yesterday morning, at 11½ o'clock, at the Second Ward Station-house. There was a numerous attendance of the friends of the deceased and others, as on the previous days of the investigation.

Coroner CONNERY stated that there was no new testimony to be submitted, as, after full and careful inquiry, no further information had been received tending to throw any light upon the murder. Persons in charge of the Brooklyn ferry-boats had been consulted, but they stated that they had no knowledge whatever of young SAMUEL, and could not say whether he passed over the ferry on the night he was said to have been seen in New-York.

Coroner CONNERY complimented the jury for the intelligence and patience they had displayed on the inquest. He regretted, however, that, with all the efforts made by the Police, both in New-York and Brooklyn, no trace of the perpetrators of this horrible murder could be found. He regretted to say that when, by the greatest exertions, crime was fixed upon the criminal, the law was not enforced, and the community were thus left a prey to outrages and criminals of the worst kind. Appeals, he said, are made by lawyers against the language of the judge, when making his charge to the jury, and this is made a sufficient ground for granting new trials. He referred to the death of Policeman ANDERSON, and the course pursued in the trial of his alleged murderer. The Police force was inadequate; policemen should be placed not over a hundred yards apart in every street, as in London. A lady was not safe in going to the theatre or any other place of amusement at night. With such a force as we now have there was no such thing as detecting the murderers and desperate characters who throng the City and County of New-York. It was almost a nightly occurrence that men were knocked down, robbed, stabbed or killed upon our docks. He recommended that a citizens' meeting should be called to insist upon an increase of the police force of this City and Brooklyn. He called the attention of the Jury to the testimony of the persons who said they saw SAMUEL in New-York, and reviewed, briefly, the main points of the testimony given before the Coroner's Jury. He had caused inquiries to be made at various places in Brooklyn for traces of young SAMUEL after he left the house of Mrs. CURTIS, in Tillary-street, on Saturday night, but without effect.

VERDICT:

That CHARLES L. SAMUEL came to his death by being stabbed in the left breast by a sharp instrument penetrating the heart, at the hands of some person or persons to the Jury unknown. And furthermore we entirely exonerate EDWARD H. SMITHSON and THOMAS CURTIS from any knowledge or participation in the act. The Jury also respectfully and earnestly request the Governor of the State of New-York to offer a suitable reward for the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrator or perpetrators of said murder

On the rendition of the verdict, the Coroner ordered that the prisoners be discharged. SMITHSON was brought up, and the Coroner gave him some fatherly advice, at the conclusion of which the young man thanked the Jury for his acquittal and exoneration. CURTIS' father was present, and took his son away, after complaining of the hard usage which he had received.

Fires.

SIX SLAUGHTER HOUSES BURNED.—At 2½ o'clock A. M. yesterday a fire broke out in one of the slaughter-houses in Thirty-ninth-street, between Eleventh-avenue and the North River. Six slaughter-houses were consumed. The firemen were promptly on the ground, but the buildings being old and built of wood, the flames spread with such rapidity, that it was impossible to save either of the buildings. The total loss does not exceed $2,000. The buildings belonged to the estate of Mr. LANG, and were uninsured. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary.

IN FORTY-SEVENTH-STREET.—At 12 M. yesterday the tar factory in Forty-seventh-street, near Eleventh-avenue, caught fire. Damage trifling.

OH, WOMAN! WOMAN!—Thou "angel in the house," or worse than fiend to man; how exquisitely art thou tinted off, in all thy glorious perfections, in "The Heart of the World," that new moral drama, repeated in such good taste this afternoon at Barnum's Museum. And then thy courage and enthusiasm, as in "Joan of Arc," at same place, this evening. As for the India-rubber man, who performs there afternoon and evening, he is, beyond all discussion, the ———. But go and see him; go and see him.

ARRIVAL OF EDWIN BLANCHARD WITH HIS HIGHLY-TRAINED DOGS.—This popular actor arrived per steamer America, from Europe, and will appear to-night at Purdy's National Theatre, in the thrilling drama of the "Cattle Stealers, or the Drover and his Dogs." Independent of this, will be performed two new pieces, viz.: a pantomime called the "Necromancer, or the Fairy of the Crystal Fount," and a drama entitled the "Inquisition." Of course the House will be crowded.

At 10½ o'clock Sunday night the store of A. M. BENNET, No. 244 Fulton street, under the Globe Hotel, caught fire, and before the fire could be extinguished about $3,000 worth of stock was destroyed. Insured sufficient to cover the loss, in the Phenix and Firemen's Insurance Compaies.

Detective DENTON, and Deputy Sheriff HIGGINS, yesterday morning made a descent upon a well known policy shop, on Adams-street, near Willoughby, where they succeeded in arresting the proprietor, a colored man named CHRISTIAN ROLLINS, and several of his customers. ROLLINS was committed to answer.

The first batch of corner loafers arrested under the new order of the Superintendent of Police, were brought before Justice MOREHOUSE, yesterday morning, and were fined $1 each. The parties were arrested at the corner of Kent and Myrtle avenues.

NICHOLAS VANDER was arrested in the Ninth Precinct on Sunday night, for attempting to kill Mrs. A. WAKEMAN, by striking her with an axe because she refused to let him have money to obtain drink. He was arrested by officer HAUPT, and committed for examination.

The flags on most of the public buildings throughout the city, were displayed yesterday, in honor of the anniversary of HENRY CLAY's birthday. Last evening the Ashland Association held a public meeting at the Institute, when an address was delivered by JOHN M. JACOBS, and other exercises took place.

The new Roman Catholic Church, "Our Mother of Mercy," at the corner of De Kalb-avenue and Debevoise-street, was duly dedicated on Sunday last. The building and ground cost $24,000, and will be under the pastoral care of the Rev. Father MCCARTHY.

During the 48 hours ending yesterday morning, the Police made 78 arrests; and during the same period of time, 73 persons were accommodated with lodgings at the different Stations.

The City Court has rendered a decision tha Sheriffs are not entitled to double costs under the Code.

CHARLES ANDERSON pleaded guilty of burglary in the Court of Sessions, yesterday, and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment in Sing Sing.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer met yesterday, and adjourned till Thursday next, without transacting any business.

BROOKLYN CITY.

Brooklyn Common Council.

The Board of Commissioners met last night

A communication was received from the Captain of the River Police, asking that an ordinance be passed requiring that all the small boats which are used on the rivers, either for pleasure or profit, shall be licensed, registered and numbered—the number to be painted conspicuously on both bows and on the stern of the boat, and the figures not less than three inches in size, subjecting the boat to forfeiture in the event of a non compliance with the ordinance.

Referred to Counselor to prepare ordinance.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Mayor to offer a reward of $750 for the arrest of the murderers of young Samuel.

The Gas Committee reported that the best contract for supplying the city with gas can be made with the Brooklyn Gas Light Company, and recommend that.

The report was made the special order for consideration after the report of the Fire Department Committee.

The Special Committee on reorganizing the Fire Department reported in favor of the paid system. The report was made the special order for next Monday evening.

The Board of Canvassers met at 5 o'clock last evening, and after opening the returns, adjourned till Thursday evening next.

New Jersey Items.

The elections for Municipal officers of Jersey City and Hoboken take place to-day, and the prospects are that the contest will be spirited in both places. In Jersey City the polls will be open from 7 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening, and in Hoboken from 8 in the morning to 7 in the evening.

The first of a series of weekly union prayer-meetings in Jersey City was held at Metropolitan Hall last evening. The Rev. Dr. RIDDLE presided. These meetings were succeeded by a conference of pastors, and will, in rotation, be presided over by the clergymen of the various churches in the city.

Increase this season $10,946,275

The Bank Statement is, altogether, indicative of continued ease in the market for Money. The Specie is again over thirty-two millions, the exact cipher being $32,036,436, and the accumulation of Deposits undrawn is beyond precedent in this City. As remarked this morning, there is every probability that eighty millions will be inscribed to the credit of individual depositors' and the Banks of the interior by mid Summer. With this increased ability to extend their Discount line, the Banks make but a moderate gain upon the previous statement, and without the aid of Treasury Bills, which constitute about $4,000,000 in the column of loans, and other extraneous investments, the total, at present, of strictly business paper is full twelve millions less than this time last year, when the combined Capital Stock was only $59,630,000 against $66,600,000 as at present. The new week opens on a lower Foreign Exchange, and without any appearance of an export demand for Specie for Wednesday's steamer. Sterling is dull, to-day, at 108⅞@109 for Bank and Bankers' Bills—the outside rate being almost nominal. Buyers appear to be holding off for about 108½ for strictly choice names. Francs are 5.18¾@5.16¼ to the dollar. Money without change from last week's rates—4@5 ⅌ cent., subject to call; 5@6 ⅌ cent. on short prime paper; 6@7 ⅌ cent. for same class at 90 days to 4 months. We learn of sales of single-name auction paper at 7 ⅌ cent., and a brokerage as long as 6 months.

The Stock Exchange for the week opened well, and attained a very decided strength at a further advance of 1@1½ ⅌ cent. in the course of the day's dealings. The two New-York road shares led the way, Central opening at 87 sold up to 88½ ⅌ cent., and Erie from 23¼ up to 25¼ ⅌ cent., both receding a fraction after the printed list of the Second Board, but closing steady. The top sales of Hudson River were at 31 ⅌ cent. Michigan Southern common stock, 25; preference shares, 49¼; Toledo, 46; Reading, 49⅛; Rock Island, 76⅝; Galena, 90; Missouri Sixes, 83¾; Milwaukee and Mississippi ten ⅌ cents., 78; and Virginia Sixes, 91¾ ⅌ cent. Altogether the dealings, in magnitude and spirit, reflect a Bull market, aided in no inconsiderable degree by the large line of Short contracts, which a number of the Bear operators seem indisposed or feel unable to renew with safety at present prices. The supply of Erie certificates on the Street having been materially reduced by bona fide purchasers at the low prices to which the stock was depressed by large and determined speculative sellers last week, the deliveries were made with difficulty to-day, and the advance since Friday for the cash stock is equal to about $4 the share, with the prospect of a further advance on the strong demand which set in a day or two ago. The demand and rise on Michigan Southern Stock continues, and the turn which the new election for Directors is likely to take on the 28th instant creates an impression that the common shares will go above 30 ⅌ cent. and the preferred to 55 or 60 ⅌ cent. There seems very little doubt that ten members of the present Board will be reëlected and that of the three names to be substituted for Messrs. JERVIS, OLYPHANT and RIGGS, who have solicited separate proxies, Mr. EDWIN C. LITCHFIELD, the late President and former Treasurer, will be one, and Mr. W. B. WELLES, of Utica, (of the former Board,) another. The reaction in Reading is now equal to 7 ⅌ cent. from the lowest point of last week. The outstanding Bear interest, both here and in Philadelphia, is understood to be a large one. The reaction in Rock Island is about 6½@7 ⅌ cent. in favor of the Bulls, and the price still 12½ ⅌ cent. below the 1st March rates. The most sagacious of the short sellers in this stock are understood to have covered their contracts at about 70 ⅌ cent. New-York Central continues to lead the list in point of real strength, and although the threatened imposition of tolls by the Legislature is still held over it, it is not credited on the Street, or by the Press, or the public interested in the well being of the great trade of New-York with the West, that any measure of the sort will be adopted. As a help to the Canal Enlargement, it would be wholly unequal, while the plainer and more effective means of raising money by loan, under the proposed Constitutional amendment, would be almost universally acceptable to the people. State Stocks, it will be seen, were firmer, and the abundance of money seeking, first-class investment is gradually directing more attention to this part of the Stock Exchange list.

The Secretary of the Treasury will in 30 days want $5,000,000 more on Treasury Bills, and his circular issued on Saturday invites proposals at the lowest rates of interest by the 10th May.

The Foreign mails by the America at Boston to March 27 from Liverpool, were delivered at the New-York Post-Office early this morning. The private mercantile and banking letters report a quiet and easy condition of affairs in England, and nothing new from France. The English Funds are stronger than by the previous mail by nearly ⅛ ⅌ cent. The French Funds steady; 69.75 for the 3 ⅌ cent. Rente. The Liverpool Cotton Market on Friday, 26th March, stood at much the same quotations as on the previous Friday, the intermediate advance of ⅛d.@¼d., reported by the Portland steamer having been lost on all except fair quality. The trade at Manchester watched the movement of the Liverpool market with unusual interest, and Goods and Yarns were moving, for the moment, in a limited way. Messrs. WRIGHT, Jr., & Co., in their Cotton Circular, remark:

"With the America's advices before the public on Tuesday, a more subdued tone set in, and the import being on a liberal scale, holders evinced renewed desire to realize, which has increased as the week advanced, and, under the promise of free arrivals for some weeks at least, the current feeling is in favor of a further reduction in value, which induces Spinners to curtail their purchases, and speculators to pause in their operations. The fine weather now experienced, and the continued influx of the precious metals swelling the bullion in the Bank, can scarcely fail to have a stimulating influence on trade, which as yet is slow to revive. When the lowest point is supposed to have been reached, however, and political events assume a more settled aspect, general improvement is anticipated, as in other respects the future is full of encouragement. Eastern accounts continue of a favorable character, and the loan of £8,000,000 is not likely to derange the present favorable position of money matters."

The return from the Bank of England for the week ending the 24th of March gives the following results when compared with the previous week:

Public deposits	£7,693,272	Increase	£1,116,235
Other deposits	13,574,781	Decrease	195,358
Rest	3,893,655	Increase	2,663
Government securities	9,901,993	Unchanged.
Other securities	16,805,904	Increase	243,951
Notes unemployed	13,013,705	Increase	665,850

The amount of notes in circulation is £19,307,025, being an increase of £96,145, and the stock of bullion in both departments is £18,733,815, showing an increase of £771,660, or about $3,855,000, when compared with the preceding weekly return.

A letter from a well-advised party in London to the Commercial Advertiser says:

"Gold continues to flow into the Bank, and the weekly account to be published this evening will exhibit a further great increase. The unemployed reserve augments in proportion, and an expectation has consequently prevailed that a reduction of the rate of discount from 3 to 2½ ⅌ cent., would be forthwith resolved upon. The Court, however, broke up the day before yesterday without making any change. Meanwhile choice paper is negotiated in the open market at 2¼ ⅌ cent."

The following table will show the fluctuations in Consols since the 19th inst.:

In regard to the new India Loan the London Times reports:

"The loan for the East India Company has been announced. The sum to be at present raised is £5,000,000, in coupon debentures of £500 and £1,000 each, having five years to run, and bearing 4 ⅌ cent. interest, payable half-yearly, in April and October. No bid is to be for less than £5,000. The installments are fixed as follows: 20 ⅌ cent. on the 8th of April; 15 ⅌ cent. on the 10th of May; 15 ⅌ cent. on the 10th of June; 20 ⅌ cent. on the 9th of July; 15 ⅌ cent. on the 10th of August, and the balance on the 10th of September; and the interest is to accrue from the date of each payment. Persons, however, who may prefer immediately to pay up in full, will be allowed a discount at the rate of 3 ⅌ cent. The tenders are to be sent in before 12 o'clock on Thursday, the 1st of April."

The British Board of Trade returns for the month ending the 28th February, 1856, 1857, and 1858, have been issued. The total declared value of the exports of British and Irish produce and manufactures during the month and two months:

	For February.	For Jan. and Feb.
1856	£7,725,747	£15,700,533
1857	9,313,040	18,371,145
1858	7,288,416	14,510,016

In regard to American Stocks, we find sales reported at the London Stock Exchange of New-York Central 83 ⅌ cent.; Illinois Central, 92½; Illinois Central Bonds, 80½, ex dividend; Pennsylvania Central Dollar Mortgage at 90, and Michigan Southern Sinking Fund 64 ⅌ cent. These figures are in sterling money. Mr. E. F. SATTERTHWAITE writes:

"Since our last advices the Money market has been quiet. The resources of the Bank of England continue to increase, but commerce is inactive, and speculation dead. The present issue of the India Loan is for £5,000,000 Sterling; it is put up to public competition under sealed tender. There has been a limited inquiry for American Securities in London during the past week. Prices are without material change, but there is less buoyancy in the market. Illinois Central Shares and Bonds have been dull, at a slight decline from our last quotations. The report of the Company for the year 1857 will be received in a mail or two from New-York, and holders are anxious to learn the exact net profit of the year's income from revenue and land sales. Erie Bonds are flat, and more freely offered. Consols close at 97⅛@⅜ for Money, and 97⅜@⅜ for account."

Real Estate.

MONDAY, April 12.

Saturdays and Mondays are always blue days in the Real East market.

No public sales to-day, except a Referees' sale of two houses and lots south side Forty-second-street, 200 feet east of Ninth avenue. Houses four stories brick, 25x45, lots 25x98.9, free and clear of all incumbrance. The first sold for $2,825, the other for $3,225. It was tenement property, and the low price (the lots alone are worth about $2,500 each) is a warning to those who design building this description of property, or which may become such after it is built.

Markets—Carefully Reported for the New-York Times.

NEW-YORK, Monday, April 12, 1858—6 P. M.

RECEIPTS OF PRODUCE—Since noon of Saturday: 95 bbls Ashes; 23,550 bbls Flour; 1,568 bushels Wheat; 47,915 bushels Corn; 1,078 bags Feed; 900 bags Malt; 3,057 pkgs. Provisions, and 294 bbls. Whisky.

ASHES—Are dull and heavy at $6 for Pots and Pearls, per 100 ℔s.

COFFEE—Is in better demand, and we have to report sales of some Maracaibo at 12¼c.@12¾c.; 1,450 bags Rio at 10c.@11¼c.; and 1,600 bags Bahia on terms not disclosed. We quote Rio, 9½c.@11½c.; Maracaibo, at 12c.@15c.; Laguayra, at 12½c.@13c., and St. Domingo, at 9½c.@9¾c. ⅌ ℔. In Baltimore, last week, there were no arrivals of Rio Coffee. 4,700 bags were sold at 10c.@11¼c., including 3,200 bags at 10¾c. ⅌ ℔. 628 bags Laguayra were received direct, but not sold. The range for Laguayra was from 12½c @13c. ⅌ ℔. Stock on hand in Baltimore, on Saturday, 14,600 bags Rio, and 628 bags Laguayra. The imports from Rio into Baltimore for the first quarter of the present year, foot up 38,033 bags Coffee, against 68,336 bags for the same period of 1857—showing a decrease of 30,303 bags.

COTTON—Is quiet and somewhat nominal, with sales reported to-day of only about 700 bales, in lots, though buyers have any existing advantage. We repeat our quotations:

FLOUR AND MEAL—The market opens quite heavily for State and Western, influenced by large arrivals and unfavorable news from Europe. The demand is pretty brisk, and is chiefly for home use, yet prices lean in favor of buyers. Sales have been reported of about 10,500 bbls.

Superfine State	$4 10@$4 20
Extra State	4 25@ 4 50
Superfine Indiana and Michigan	4 10@ 4 25
Superfine Ohio	4 20@ 4 30
Fancy Ohio	4 35@ 4 45
Extra Indiana and Michigan	4 30@ 6 00
Extra Ohio	4 60@ 6 00
Fancy Genesee	4 30@ 4 35
Extra Genesee	5 20@ 6 75
Low to very choice Extra Missouri	5 00@ 7 00

Canadian Flour is heavy and drooping. Sales 850 bbls. low to good extra, at $4 35@$5 50 ⅌ bbl. Southern is plenty, depressed and declining. The transactions since our last comprise 2,000 bbls., at $4 50@$8 25 for low mixed to choice extra, ⅌ bbl. Rye Flour is quiet, yet steady at $3@$3 75 for fine to superfine ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal is in demand, at firmer quotations: $3 20@$3 25 for Jersey, and $3 75@$3 80 for Brandywine, ⅌ bbl.

GRAIN—Wheat is in very moderate supply and request, without any remarkable alteration in prices. Sales have been reported of 11,000 bushels, including Red Western, mainly Chicago Spring, at $1; and White Southern on private terms. Corn opened quite depressed at reduced prices, with free offerings. Subsequently, it attracted more attention and nearly if not all the available lots were purchased. Prices closed a shade lower than on Saturday. Sales were reported of about 50,000 bushels at 71c.@73c. for White, and 73c. for Yellow, chiefly Southern, ⅌ bush. Rye and Barley are quiet at about previous figures, with limited sales reported. Oats are in request and are tending upward. We quote 46c.@48c. for Western; 44c.@46c. for State; 38c.@42c. for Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware, and 36c.@41c. for Southern, ⅌ bushel.

HAY—Sales have been made of 500 bales at 50c.@60c. ⅌ 100 ℔s. In Philadelphia, last week, hay was plenty and in good request. Prices advanced 5c. ⅌ 100 ℔s., closing with Timothy, best quality, at from 75c.@80c. ⅌ 100 ℔s.; Clover at from 65c.@70c. ⅌ 100 ℔s., and mixed Clover at 60c.@63c. Straw also advanced, with sales at 7c.@8c. In Baltimore, during the week, Hay and Straw were in fair demand. Baled Hay, $14@$15; loose do., $8@$12; Rye Straw, $14@$15; Wheat Straw, $10@$12 ⅌ ton. In Charleston, the movements in Hay embraced receipts of 700 bales, and sales of 1,200 bales North River. The range of prices was from 75c.@80c. ⅌ 100 ℔s. In Savannah, sales were reported of a cargo of Eastern, on arrival, at $1 05; and a cargo of Northern, to arrive, at 80c. ⅌ 100 ℔s., each from wharf.

HEMP—498 bales inferior to good were sold in St. Louis, April 8, at $60@$70 ⅌ ton. Sales were reported in Boston of 75 tons Russian clean Hemp at private bargain; 30 tons Russian Hemp Yarns at 9½c., and 1,117 bundles Coir Yarns at 9c., each 6 months credit.

LUMBER—In Savannah, last week, some demand prevailed for Lumber for Eastern ports, as well as for the West Indies. Resawed $14@$16; rough edge, $12@$14; and cargoes for West India trade, $13@$14 50. Timber arrived pretty freely, but was sparingly purchased at $4 50@$12, according to quality. The shipments of Timber and Lumber from Savannah during the week amounted to only 389,303 feet, including 232,234 feet for New-York.

MOLASSES—The demand is more active, chiefly for Cuba, at old prices: New-Orleans 34c.@36c.; Porto Rico, 30c.@35c.; Cuba Muscovado, 22c.@30c.; Clayed Cuba, 22½c.@23½c. ⅌ gallon.

OILS—Crude Whale is attracting more attention, in part, at 58c., cash, ⅌ gallon. White Crude Sperm is dull at $1 25@$1 26 ⅌ gallon. Linseed is in pretty good demand, mainly at 70c. ⅌ gallon. Other kinds present no really new feature.

PROVISIONS—Pork is plenty and in good request, with sales reported of 1,200 bbls., in lots, at $17 50@$17 60, mainly at $17 50 for Mess, and $14 35@$14 50 for prime, ⅌ bbl. Cut Meats are dull and heavy at 9c.@9¾c. for Hams and 6½c.@6¾c. for Shoulders, ⅌ ℔. Bacon is quiet at 8¾c.@9½c. ⅌ ℔. Lard is in request and prices favor sellers. The transactions since our last embrace 400 bbls. fair to strictly prime, chiefly at 10½c.@10⅞c. ⅌ ℔. Beef is in moderate demand, at former rates; the transactions since our last consist of 240 bbls., in lots, at $12@$13 50 for repacked Western Mess; $14@$14 50 for extra do.; $10@$11 for Country Mess; and $7 50@$8 25 for do. Prime, ⅌ bbl. Prime Mess Beef, $19@$23 ⅌ tc. Beef Hams, $16@$18 50 ⅌ bbl. Butter is plenty and salable, at 12c.@17c. for Ohio, 15c.@22c. for common to very good State, and 23c.@25c. for prime to choice do., ⅌ ℔. Cheese is in demand, and is worth 7c.@10c. ⅌ ℔.

RICE—Is in fair demand, and is firm at $3 50@$4 ⅌ 100 ℔s. In Charleston, last week, the movements in Rice were as follows: Receipts, 3,834 tcs., clean, and 36,000 bushels rough; the sales embraced nearly all the clean received, at $3 12½@$4, mainly at $3 25@$3 50 ⅌ 100 ℔s., with 20,000 bushels rough at 80c.@96c., mainly at 85c.@92c. ⅌ bushel; exports, 4,234 tcs. clean, including 1,130 tcs. to New-York, and 519 tcs. to Boston. Freights to New-York for Rice, 75c., for sailing vessels, and 87½c. in steamers. In Savannah, there were received 103 tcs. clean, and 4,400 bushels rough; sold, 643 tcs. clean, at from $3 18¾@$3 37½ ⅌ 100 ℔s.; and 800 bushels rough at 83c. ⅌ bushel. exported, 1,466 tcs. clean, including 16 to New York.

SEEDS—5,500 bags Calcutta Linseed sold in Boston at $1 70, cash, ⅌ bushel, now held higher.

SUGARS—In anticipation of more extensive supplies, buyers are purchasing with reserve. Prices, however, are well supported. Sales 400 hhds. in lots, at 6½c.@6⅞c. for Cuba; 6½c.@7c. for Porto Rico, and 6c.@7⅛c. for New-Orleans, ⅌ ℔.

WHISKY—Sales, 400 bbls. at 21c.@21½c., cash, ⅌ gallon.

For other ports proportionate rates.

Liverpool Markets.

Per America.] LIVERPOOL, Friday, March 26, 1858.

COTTON—There was a good demand on Saturday and Monday, when an advance of a full ⅛d.—more particularly on the lower qualities—was established; but since then the reported increase in the receipts of the American ports, with a continued liberal import here, caused holders to become anxious sellers, and under their pressure to sell the demand has fallen off, and the improvement had in the early part of the week has been lost—the market closing dull at about ⅛d. decline on Friday's prices. We quote Middling Orleans, 7d.; Mobile, 6⅞d.; Boweds, 6⅝d. Present estimated stock 401,700 bales, including 298,840 American; against 384,290, including 276,390 American, for corresponding week of last year. The sales of the week are 64,940 bales, including 25,350 American; and those for to-day are estimated at 6,000, including 2,000 for export, &c.

SUGAR—The trade has been steady, and a fair business has been done without change in prices. The Sales embrace Antigua, 41s.@43s. 6d.; Bengal, 45s. 6d.@47s.; Mauritius, 37s.@44s. The London market has also been steady, with a good trade, at firm prices.

TOBACCO—For Ireland there has been a fair business, but in other respects the market has been quiet—the Trade buying only by retail, at previous prices.

BREADSTUFFS—The receipts of the week have been liberal, except of Wheat, embracing 42,370 bbls. Flour, 149 qrs. Wheat, and 24,840 qrs. Indian Corn, from America. The general trade has been quiet. For New-Orleans and St. Louis Flour there has been less in demand, and a slight concession in prices, the sales ranging from 25s @27s. New York and Ohio has been very dull, and has met with a slow sale at 23s. 6d.@24s.; but for Western Canal there has been a fair trade at 21s. 6d.@22s. White Wheat has continued scarce, and brought from 7s @7s. 4d.; but the demand for American Red has been interfered with by the free offering of Baltic, weighing 62 to 63 ℔s., at 6s. 4d. Spring Wheat has been in fair trade at 6s.@6s. 3d. Indian Corn was active in the beginning of the week, when slightly dearer prices were paid; but within the past two days the demand has fallen off, and the market returned to the values of Friday last. To-day's market was very quiet and prices somewhat irregular. The finer and intermediate grades of Flour were cheaper; but qualities of equal value of Western Canal were firm. Wheat was unchanged. Indian Corn was steady at 33s 6d. for White, and 33s. 6d.@34s. for Mixed and Yellow.

PROVISIONS have been quiet. Bacon has receded 1s @2s., and moved slowly at 44s. for Long Rib, 47s. for Long Clear, 46s. for Short Rib, and 43s. 6d.@44s. for Cumberland. P. M. Pork has had a fair trade, principally for the London market, at 70s.@72s. 6d. Beef does not improve, the inquiry being occasional at 90s.@95s. for Cleveland; 100s.@105s. for Chicago, and 125s.@130s. for India. Lard has been quiet, with rather more firmness, the value being 47s. 6d.@49s. for old, and 50s.@52s. for good to choice new.

TALLOW—The stock remaining light has insured a good demand at full prices—say 56s. for Petersburg, Y. C. In London the market is steady at 55s. on the spot; 54s. 6d for April, and 53s. 9d. April to June.
